

JEWISH NEWS BRIEFS

BONN (WNS) — Thousands of Americans, mainly Jews and World War II veterans, have cancelled vacations in West Germany since President Reagan visited the Bitburg war cemetery May 5. Knut Blaeternann of the German tourist promotion center in New York, told a news conference in Hamburg that the cancellations resulted in hotels losing at least 200,000 overnight stays valued at several million dollars.

PARIS (WNS) — Klaus Barbie, the "butcher of Lyon," is physically and mentally fit to stand trial, three medical experts have told investigating magistrate Christian Riss. Barbie, the Lyon gestapo chief during World War II, is expected to go on trial this fall on half a dozen charges of "crimes against humanity."

STRASBOURG (WNS) — The European branch of the World Jewish Congress on May 16 called on its affiliates everywhere to press their respective governments for effective legislation that would outlaw any attempt to whitewash Nazi armies or deny the horrors of the Holocaust.

TEL AVIV (WNS) — The Israel Philharmonic Orchestra and the New York Philharmonic will give a joint concert at the Mann Auditorium here June 30 under the baton of Zubin Mehta who is musical director of both orchestras. The Israel born American violinist Yitzhak Perlman will be solo performer.

VIENNA (WNS) — A memorial marker was erected and the park in front of the University of Vienna was named Sigmund Freud Park to honor the Vienna-born father of psychoanalysis. The marker, which carries the inscription, "The voice of sanity is soft," taken from one of Freud's works, was unveiled last week by Mayor Helmut Zilk.

NEW YORK (WNS) — A New York Times/CBS News Poll shows that the American public remains equally divided over President Reagan's May 5 visit to the German military cemetery at Bitburg. The poll showed that a total of 41 percent of the American public supported the visit while 41 percent said he should not have made the trip. Eighteen percent had no opinion.

JERUSALEM (WNS) — Israel has asked Interpol, the international police agency, to arrest and hand over to Israeli authorities Dr. Mengele, the Auschwitz death camp doctor, the most notorious Nazi war criminal still at large. He is reported living in Paraguay under the protection of the military government there.

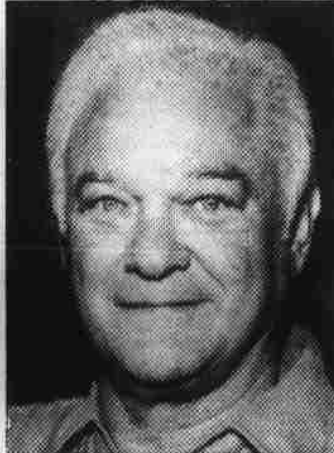

JERUSALEM (WNS) — Some 200 former Jewish fighters in the French resistance movement met to dedicate a forest in the Jerusalem hills in memory of Nazi victims and Jewish freedom fighters in France during World War II. Ambassador Jacques Dupont attended the May 5 ceremony, as did Moshe Rivlin, chairman of the board of the Jewish National Fund.
