

Cohen To Play For U.S. Team At Maccabiah Games In Israel

LAS VEGAS — UNLV Rebel Assistant Soccer Coach Dave Cohen has been named as a member of the U.S. team that will play in the 12th Maccabiah Games, July 15 - 25, 1985, in Israel. The Maccabiah Games, which are held every four years in Tel Aviv, are open to all persons of Jewish descent and are similar in format to the Olympic Games. Cohen, along with the other 17 soccer players selected, will report to Rutgers University on June 28th for training camp prior to the Games. The U.S. team will then leave for Israel on July 10th.

"This is a tremendous thrill for me," said Cohen. "To be selected to participate in the Maccabiah Games is something that every Jewish kid wants to experience."

Cohen survived two rounds of tryouts among top level competition, including both amateur and professional soccer players. The first round of tryouts was done on a regional basis. Cohen took part in the Western Tryouts February 9-10 at Cal State Northridge with over 250 participants present. All tolled, over 1,000 participants across the country tried out those two days.

The final tryout was held at Lawrence High School in Cedarhurst, N.Y. April 20 - 21. The original field of over 1,000 players was cut down to 41 for the final tryouts in New York. Cohen was successful and was selected to the 18-player U.S. team.

Four years ago, South Africa won the gold medal, with the U.S. taking the Silver and Israel the bronze.
