Liberace Sparkles At Caesars Palace Through May 28

LAS VEGAS, Nv. — for portraying The Nicholas Brothers in the movie "The Cotton Club" will be coming home to Las Vegas after a record-breaking engagement at New York's Radio City Music Hall. Over 100,000 tickets were sold before opening night of his 17-day schedule. "Starred and feathered" is the way USA Today described his New York wardrobe — a style that has been reborn in today's rock stars and may be a part of his appeal to young audiences.

PERFIELD and several other stars will also show off...ART LYNCH has been associated with JOE BEHAR's Community Drama Workshop moving over from radio to tread the boards as an actor. In addition to earning awards from United Press International, Associated Press and state broadcast associations in Wyoming and California, LYNCH found time to act in over 70 roles and develop a baritone songstyle, studying locally under VIRGINIA CARPENTER. His efforts have paid off with part time work at Nevada Sports Schedule, Chuck Wagner's Soundtrax and taking on some commercials and films. "An actor needs a place to grow and at my income I can't afford the large amounts most workshops charge," LYNCH tells this column. "But the Community Drama Workshop is now in its 11th year of realizing JOE BEHAR's dream of providing a free workshop for developing talent in Las Vegas" and he adds, "You meet good people and have fun performing." BEHAR's Community Drama Workshop meets every Monday night, 8 p.m. in the conference room area of Sam's Town bowling alleys. For further info, call JOE at 458-0069...BARRY MANILOW's three nights at the Riviera Friday through Sunday will cost $53.50 per person in the main showroom 8 p.m. and midnight. That $50-plus includes tax, tip and a couple of cocktails.

Another Riviera flash -- Beverly Hills' fave pizza parlor has a branch opening this smash

Orange Juice Fresh From Israel Served At Economic Summit

TEL AVIV (WNS) — Members of Kibbutz Givat Brenner were pleasantly surprised to see that President Reagan and the heads of the West European states were treated to fresh orange juice bottled in their kibbutz "Rimon" fruit-juice bottling plant.

The kibbutzniks nudged each other, while viewing a segment of a television newsreel, when they noticed the bottles on the tables at a banquet held in Bonn in honor of the heads of state.

On stage at Caesars Palace, Liberace will perform cocktail shows nightly at 8:30 and 11:30 p.m., except Monday and Thursday when there will be one show at 10 p.m. Prices are $25 on weekdays, $30 on Friday, Saturday and Sunday. For reservations phone the Caesars Palace Circus Maximus Showroom 702/731-7333 or 800/634-6001 (outside Nevada, within the U.S.).

Memorial Day weekend. JACOPO'S PIZZERIA, owned and operated by MARC & BARRY FOLEL since 1977, has been the magnet for many w.k. celebs in Bevhills and the Vegas extension, plus three more, will have the same crowds. The Pizzeria opening marks the official ribbon cutting of the Riv's Mardi Gras Plaza...Next Thursday is "STARS OF MAGIC CONCERT FOR HUNGER IN AMERICA," at the Tropicana with magicians appearing and disappearing at will on stage of the Tiffany Theater. Consider the hocus pocus of HARRY ANDERSON, HARRY BLACKSTONE JR., LANCE BURTON, DAVID COPPERFIELD, DOUG HENNING, JEFF McBRIDE, MAX MAVEN, SIEGFRIED & ROY, JOHN THOMPSON, FIELDING WEST & MARK WILSON.
