

Pre School Mother's Day Program At Temple Beth Sholom

PHOTOGRAPHY
BY MARVIN

(L-R) Grace Riccobene - Principal, Nicole Koval, John Ross Fullmer, Maria Abraham & Cindy Thompson

(L-R) Robin Villamor, Jay Schuminsky, Jessica Berger & Jeffrey Raskin

(L-R) Brian Olenslager & Kevin Holt

(L-R) Bethany Leavitt & Angela Lee

(L-R) Jennifer Chow, Amy Ehrlich — back row, Samantha Peters, Maria Abraham — back row, Nicole Kring & Angela Grimm

Temple Beth Sholom Pre-School saluted Marie Horsley and all mothers and fathers at their annual Mother's Day Program, entitled "It's a Small World" which was held in the Social Hall of Temple Beth Sholom.

The children dressed in various costumes namely: Brer Rabbit, Mickey Mouse, Country Bears, Tigers, Seven Dwarfs, and authentic costumes of children around the world, demonstrated their skills marching, galloping, dancing, gymnastics, playing instruments and doing choreography routines to the delight of a packed auditorium.

The self-esteem felt by the children was the primary goal of this event. This is why the teachers begin short enjoyable training sessions beginning in September. By May, all the children know every song and feel comfortable with the task and are excited to show mom, dad, relatives and friends their accomplished performances.

The Pre-School staff members are:

Grace Riccobene, principal; Marie Horsley, business manager; Carmen Miller, Vickie Brunner, Emily Berry, Sheila Leavitt, April Warburton, Jeanne Warburton, Millie Wheeler, Lois Bergman, Hebrew Instructor; Toni Sgarlata, Dance Instructor; Barbara Hubbard, Gymnastics Instructor.