

Legends In Concert Set For Year #3 At Imperial Palace

The hit show LEGENDS IN CONCERT is heading into its third year at the Imperial Palace in Las Vegas. The show, which features live recreations of legendary superstars with dazzling special effects, opened at the Imperial Palace May 5, 1983. So popular has LEGENDS become, it was voted "1985 Show of the Year" by the Greater Las Vegas Chamber of Commerce.

Producer John Stuart assembled a second company for Caesars, Atlantic City and duplicated his incredible special effects equipment for that show, which runs through June 16th. The original cast remains intact at the Imperial Palace where the show continues indefinitely and is drawing record-breaking audiences.

Both shows include live re-creations of these five stars: Elvis Presley, Marilyn Monroe, Buddy Holly, Judy Garland, and John Lennon. The Imperial Palace show also features Hank Williams and the comedy of Dave Swan. Caesars, Atlantic City, features Jack Benny, Al Jolson and Bobby Darin. Jack Benny serves as master of ceremonies, tying together the presentation.

As his cast celebrates LEGENDS' second anniversary, John Stuart continues to refine and improve the show.

"We've added a lot to the show in the past few months," he says, "a lot of visual impact and production value."

Four dancers enliven the Buddy Holly, Marilyn Monroe and Judy Garland segments. In the Garland segment, clowns and showgirls highlight Judy's song "That Entertainment."

Changes have been made in the multi-media presentations which introduce the stars and their eras. The objective is always to create in the audience a sense of deja vu, a feeling that they are seeing those legendary superstars perform live.

To his already impressive array of lasers, Stuart has added a 20 watt krypton laser. He has also added red Tivoli lights and is having the set pieces and orchestra front re-designed.

The best thing about LEGENDS, though, is the talent and energy of the young artists on stage. After working together for two years, Stuart says the cast, orchestra and back up singers are like a family, all pulling together to make LEGENDS better than ever.

Being constructed outside the showroom is a "LEGENDS Hall of Fame" featuring photos of current stars of the show. Coming soon is a colorful souvenir program with pictures and information on all the stars.

LEGENDS IN CONCERT is presented twice nightly, except Sundays, at 8:00 and 11:00 in the Imperial Theater. Stuart stresses proudly that it is a family show, suitable for all ages. Price for the show is $11.95, including two cocktails.

WASHINGTON (WNS) — The House approved by a 422-0 vote the bill establishing a Free Trade Area between Israel and the U.S. The bill, which would eliminate tariffs and other trade barriers, in phases over a 10-year period, was also approved unanimously by the Senate Finance Committee. The agreement was signed in a ceremony April 22 by Israel Minister of Commerce and Industry Ariel Sharon and former U.S. Trade Representative William Brock. President Reagan submitted it immediately to Congress which has 60 days to approve it.
