These pure silk, satin and velvet outfits are designed and made by students at the Hadassah Seligsberg/Brandeis Comprehensive High School in Jerusalem and tour for the benefit of Hadassah Israel Education Services which also include a Community College and Vocational Guidance Institute.

The HADASSAH FASHION SHOW, now on tour of the U.S. after a glorious premiere in Jerusalem, Israel, arrives in our community on June 24, 1985. It was created by fashion students of the Hadassah-Seligsberg/Brandeis Comprehensive High School, who literally wove the city they love into its very fabric.

Entitled JERUSALEM OF GOLD, the collection of 30 stunning outfits form a fashion tour of this ancient and holy city, reflecting its colors, stones, walls, scenes history and spirit. Fashions are grouped in several segments --

Gates of the City, Jerusalem by Day, Mea Shearim, Rechavia, Oriental Community, Two Faces of Jerusalem, The Kings of Israel.

The SHOW is being presented by the Las Vegas Chapter of Hadassah for the benefit of Hadassah's Israel Education Services project. Fashion Show will be held at the Sahara Hotel at 11:30 A.M. Tickets are available as follows:

DONATION - Gold Circle $36.00 per person
Silver Circle $18.00 per person

The FASHION SHOW took a full year to plan and execute. It is the proud work of 50 Fashion Department students, including one boy, aged 15 to 18, under the guidance of four teachers, who are graduates of the school, and the Department Head who has been working on Hadassah Fashion Shows for 30 years.

JERUSALEM (WNS) — Foreign Airlines serving Israel are vigorously lobbying Knesset members against the $300-plus travel tax that went into effect recently. They are warning that the tax will severely curtail travel to and from Israel. The measure is one of more than 20 economic austerity proposals adopted by the Cabinet two weeks ago.

NEW YORK (WNS) — Vice President George Bush said that the United States is trying to find an "international context" in which Israel and its Arab neighbors can enter into negotiations for a Middle East peace settlement.
