Michael Cherry Meets
Meir Rosenne,
Israel's Ambassador To U.S.

Michael A. Cherry, a partner in the Las Vegas law firm Manos & Cherry, Ltd., and an activist in the local Jewish community met Israel's Ambassador to the United States, Meir Rosenne, following that diplomat's keynote address to selected members of B'nai B'rith, recently, at the South Coast Plaza Hotel in Cosata Mesa, California.

An executive delegate to the 122nd annual B'nai B'rith District Four convention, Cherry also met with the presidents of B'nai B'rith International and B'nai B'rith District Four in sessions setting policy for the world's largest Jewish service organization. District Four is the B'nai B'rith administrative division for 10 Western states and the Canadian province of British Columbia.

A member of Nate Mack-Las Vegas B'nai B'rith Lodge, Cherry is a past president of District Four and a permanent member of its executive board. He is also past president of Las Vegas' Congregation Ner Tamid, and is a member of the board of the Jewish Federation of Las Vegas.

The four day convention, which includes a major fund raising luncheon benefitting the youth serving agencies of B'nai B'rith, culminated with a black-tie-optional banquet and dance at which internationally known comic Yakov Smirnoff entertained.
