

OF THE STARS

The Las Vegas Hilton made a multimillion dollar offer for SIEGFRIED & ROY at the Frontier while an unidentified buyer (mebbe STEVE WYNN of the Golden Nugget) has approached KIRK KERKORIAN about buying MGM Grand...No one has approached ED TORRES of the Aladdin in weeks about buying him out...Meanwhile WYNN is itching to build his additional $45,000,000 17-story 816-room tower downtown, but the Golden Nugget would have to close Carson Street to expand starting September 1. P.S. -- the city shouldn't nix the proposition on Thursday before the planning commission, not with WYNN's juice. One councilman said the city is "definitely looking at closing other streets to make larger blocks"...Business in town over the 4th didn't fill up all of the 54,000-plus hotel/motel rooms. Bill Reid, assistant tourism director for Las Vegas Convention & Visitors Authority, post-mortemed: "We would have had a better showing if the holiday fell on a Monday or a Friday"...GOV RICHARD BRYAN, looking in on the recent "Rocky IV" filming at MGM Grand, shook hands with Sylvester Stallone and beamed, "We want to make this shoot and this entire film your most successful and we invite you back again and again." Away from his script, Stallone adlibbed, "Great to be here. Great to be alive!"

DEBBIE REYNOLDS, Hilton headlining in "Bal du Moulin Rouge," is in negotiations for a Strip site for her movie memorabilia museum...MARY RETTIG, who handles DEBBIE's local PR, offered to Massachusetts with spouse HEINTZ ('57") to visit their children...FLORENCE LaRUE buzzed to Ellay for a shot on the DICK CLARK production "Puttin' On the Hits," but skied back immediately for her lead singing role in the 5th Dimension's "Splash" Riviera run...JEFF McCOLL, exec-secretary of Culinary Union 226, said at the Las Vegas Symphony's July 4th concert at the Tropicana, "No contest" referring to Four Queens votes to toss out the union. But, he said, many hardliner union members will continue walking no matter the outcome of voting. The Four Queens pickets were the final, lingering reminder of the four-union strike that began 2 years ago April and lasted three months for most Nevada Resort Association hotels.

Triple play of JOAN RIVERS, DOC SEVERINSEN & GARRY SHANDLING toss fortnight ball at Caesars Palace opening Thursday...MARLETA MORROW, fem lead in the Sahara's "Promises, Card Stud until three players remain to take $200, $300 and $500 in prize money.
