

"Everything Is Beautiful" At The D. I.

Ray Stevens must have had Lynda Carter in mind when he wrote the Grammy award-winning "Everything Is Beautiful." He stopped backstage to see Carter during her Desert Inn engagement. Stevens and Tanya Tucker will play in the D.I.'s Crystal Room through August 7.

The City of Las Vegas' Stewart/Mojave Center offers separate workout areas for men and women. The fitness room includes universal equipment, versa climbers and dumbbells with some free weights. After your workout, spend a few moments in our sauna or jacuzzi. Remember, today is the first day of the rest of your life. Fee is $1 per day, $10 per month; semi-annual and annual rates are also available.

The center is located at 275 N. Mojave Rd. For more information call 386-6563 or stop by the center.

12th Maccabiah Games Open

TEL AVIV (WNS) — The 12th Maccabiah Games opened at the Ramat Gan Stadium with a colorful spectacle attended by 50,000 spectators, watching the marching in of the 4,000 participants from 39 countries. More than 500 athletes are from the United States.

Other items on the two-hour program, the central theme of which is the ingathering of the 12 Tribes of Israel, included a half-hour show featuring 1,000 performers dancing, singing and wearing costumes from Yemen, Greece, Morocco, Ethiopia, America, Israel and other cultures which are part of the Israeli melting pot.

A gymnastics display was staged by 2,000 young participants from the Maccabi youth movement and President Chaim Herparachutists jumped in to the center of the arena before the final fireworks display. The Maccabi torch was carried in by the 1972 Olympic Games seven gold-medallist Mark Spitz, accompanied by the 13-year-old daughters of Amitzus Shapiro, Yosef Romano and Andrie Spitzer, three of the 11 Israeli athletes and coaches on the 1972 Israeli Olympics Team who were killed by Black September terrorists at Munich. Spitz, whose participation in this year's Maccabiah was kept a close secret until a week before the Games, made his international swimming debut at the Seventh Maccabiah in 1965 and went on from there to the U.S. Olympics team and his world-shattering Munich Games victories.

The Games were declared open by Parachutists jumped in to the center of the arena before the final champion in his native Ireland.
