

Charged In Kharkov

Evgeny Aisenberg of Kharkov, shown with his wife Marina, is the latest unofficial Hebrew teacher in Russia to be sentenced for the patently false charge of "anti-Soviet slander," according to the Student Struggle for Soviet Jewry. The 33 year-old computer engineer was given 2-1/2 years. Photo by Student Struggle For Soviet Jewry, 210 West 91st Street, New York, N.Y. 10024 (212) 799-8900.

Terrorist HQ Raided By IDF Planes

TEL AVIV (WNS) — IDF planes raided a pro-Syrian terrorist organization which has claimed responsibility for several suicide bombings in the security zone of south Lebanon recently. The IDF spokesman said that the target was a headquarters at the Lebanon Bekaa town of Shtoura, of the Syrian Nationalist Social Party (SNSP). All planes returned safely to base, he said.

It was this group which claimed responsibility for a car bombing in the security zone last week, in which two IDF soldiers were lightly wounded and two Lebanese, including the car-bomb driver himself, were killed.

and foremost by means of armed struggle for the liberation of the Palestinian lands and the setting up of a patriotic, independent, fighting people's regime in every part of the Palestine territory which will be liberated..."

In the light of the above facts, the very type of such a joint Jordanian-Palestinian delegation now envisaged in Washington to meet with an American delegation minus Israel can bring no fruitful results but only lead to further confusion and ill-feelings all around.

Israel has offered full autonomy to the Palestinians in the territories, a benevolent autonomy. Should they reject this offer, one alternative only remains — annexation. And, as for Jordan, let King Hussein join hands in the way of Sadat with Israel in a peace treaty of mutual trust. Arafat and the PLO can only bring him a curse. The real, down-to-earth Palestinians need neither Hussein nor Arafat.

A Higher Power will have the Last Word.
