Congregation Shaarei Tefilla will be holding High Holiday services in its new Synagogue building at 1331 S. Maryland Parkway. Harold Walt, Baal Tefilla from Los Angeles, will conduct services.

Seats for non-members are available at $50. Those who wish to become members may have their seat donation apply towards dues. Membership in the Synagogue includes free high holiday seats and Hebrew School.

The Hebrew School will be holding an open house on Sunday, September 8 at 10 a.m. Classes are small with an emphasis on conversational Hebrew and Tefillah. Parents are urged to attend and discuss any questions with Principal Anita Lederman. For information call 384-3565.

JFSA Receives Contribution To Aid Elderly

Payless Cashways, Inc., headquartered in Kansas City, Missouri, is making a substantial monetary contribution to assist Jewish Family Service Agency of Las Vegas in the development of support services for the elderly in our community.

John Herron, Executive Vice President of Payless Cashways, Inc., along with Susan Stanton, Vice President of Administration/Corporate Planning, Richard Hemer, Sr. Vice President and Linda Ward, Director, Corporate Communications, are in Las Vegas, making the formal presentation to JFSA Board President, Bea Levinson (center) and William Feldman (R).

This donation will be used to initiate a program for the elderly. The services will include emotional support and counseling, group socialization, in-home companions, respite care for the housebound, special transportation, and necessity relocation assistance. Specially trained volunteers under the direction of the agency volunteer coordinator, Karen Jorgenson, will be an important aspect of this expanded service.

Matching funds have been received from the William Randolph Hearst Foundation and the Diamond's Employee's Contribution Fund. Further information may be obtained by contacting the agency director, William Feldman, 732-0304.
