Rest In Peace John R. Case

John R. Case, 53, died recently in a local hospital after a long illness. In 1956 in Bonneville Salt Flats, Utah, John, a race car driver, was the second man to ever break the 200 M.P.H. mark. His speed was 206 M.P.H. He then opened his own trucking company in California. John then moved to Las Vegas for the dry climate. After being a national tool representative he and his lovely wife Yvonne opened Tool City in Las Vegas. He is survived by his wife, Yvonne, daughters Sallie Palmer, Nancy Wolff, Carmen Beacom and son Eugene (Hoppy) Carvalho all of Las Vegas and Lucille Boot of Oakland, California. He had 17 Grandchildren and 2 Great Grandchildren.
