concert halls and auditoriums. In "Stephane Grappelli In New Orleans," however, he performs in an intimate cabaret setting reminiscent of the Parisian nightclubs in which he made his professional start. Taped before a live audience, Grappelli and his accompanists -- Martin Taylor on electric guitar, Marc Fossett on acoustic guitar, and Patrice Caratini on bass -- inject new life into some "old chestnuts." Among the tunes highlighted in the special are Irving Berlin's "Cheek to Cheek," Cole Porter's "Love for Sale" and "I Get a Kick Out of You," Hammerstein's and Kern's "Old Man River" and a George Gershwin medley featuring "Someone To Watch Over Me" and "I Got Rhythm."
