Jeane Kirkpatrick Launches Barrick Series At UNLV

Jeane J. Kirkpatrick, the first woman ever chosen as the United States' Ambassador to the United Nations, will open UNLV's prestigious Barrick Lecture Series with a lecture on U.S. foreign policy September 20 in Artemus W. Ham

JERUSALEM (WNS) — Rafah police detained a terrorist who was released last May in the prisoner exchange deal with Ahamad Jibril. No specific reasons were given for the detention, except that the terrorist has violated the conditions of his release. The principle of those conditions has been that the freed terrorists would not engage in any way in anti-Israeli activities. There are more than 200 freed terrorists living in the Gaza region. A second terrorist has been detained in the past few days because he, too, allegedly violated the conditions for his release.

In Jerusalem, police questioned an Israeli soldier who opened fire at an Arab-owned bus, wounding five passengers. The soldier, who waited to be picked up at hitch-hiking station near Shuafat, in the north of Jerusalem, claimed he began shooting after a bottle, or some other object, had been thrown at him.

An hour later, a No. 25 Egged bus, travelling on the same road, was stoned -- and five passengers were slightly wounded. The windshield of the bus was smashed.

Meanwhile, seven persons were placed under administrative arrest in the territories. The seven had allegedly been involved in terrorist activities, over a long period. The arrests bring the number of administrative detainees now held in the West Bank to 70.

A senior security source said that PLO leader Yasir Arafat was behind the stepped-up terrorist

Governor Of Nevada Makes Plea For Soviet Jewry

Richard H. Bryan,
Governor Of Nevada

Mr. Eduard Shvardnadze
Soviet Foreign Minister
c/o Permanent Mission of the
USSR to the United Nations
136 East 67th Street
New York, New York 10021

Dear Minister Shvardnadze:

As Governor of the State of Nevada, I want to welcome you to the United States. I would be remiss, however, if at the same time I did not communicate to you the deeply troubled feelings

Shalom, I'd Like To Be Your Friend

This is one of the many Ethiopian Jewish children, safe, fed and receiving medical care in Israel, their national homeland. Some 70 percent of Ethiopian Jews in Israel are under the age of 14 and arrived without parents. The Jewish Agency, which aids immigrants mainly with funds from the UJA/Federation Campaigns, sees to it that such immigrants not only receive nutritious food, clothing and shelter, but that their medical and psychological needs are also addressed.
