

William S. Boyd Heads National Jewish Center Fundraising Campaign

LAS VEGAS — William S. Boyd, president and secretary of The Boyd Group, has been named chairman of the Las Vegas fundraising campaign for the National Jewish Center for Immunology and Respiratory Medicine (formerly National Jewish Hospital/National Asthma Center).

The campaign for the Denver-based research and treatment institute will kick off with a meeting of volunteers at the Las Vegas Hilton.

The Boyd Group operates the California Hotel and Casino, Sam's Town Hotel and Gambling Hall, the Stardust Hotel and Casino, and the Fremont Hotel and Casino in Las Vegas.

Boyd is also a partner in the Las Vegas law firm of Boyd and Huff.

David DiMascio, controller of the California Hotel, and Jeanne Hood of the Four Queens Hotel and Casino will serve as treasurer and journal chairman for the drive.

The highlight of the campaign will be a dinner on October 20 at which Governor and Mrs. Richard H. Bryan will receive the prestigious National Jewish Humanitarian Award for distinguished service to the community.

The National Jewish Center for Immunology and Respiratory Medicine is the nation's only medical facility focusing its complete resources on respiratory, allergic and immune disorders, which include such diseases as asthma, emphysema, chronic bronchitis, tuberculosis, occupational and environmental lung disease, juvenile rheumatoid arthritis and immune deficiency disorders.

Non-profit and non-sectarian, the Center accepts adults and children from around the country as patients without regard to race or religion and has cared for patients from every state in the nation. Nevada residents have received more than 13,000 days of care there.

PATERSON, N.J. (WNS) — Tscherim Soobzokov, the 61-year-old Soviet-born former member of the Waffen SS is listed, according to latest reports, in critical condition at a hospital here after being injured when a pipe bomb exploded at his home. Soobzokov was charged in 1979 with concealing his war-time activities when he applied to enter the U.S. in 1955. But the Justice Department dropped the charges against him after it was proved he did acknowledge his past activities when he applied for a visa in 1952.

activities in the territories. The source sharply attacked the rapprochement between King Hussein and Arafat, saying that as a result Amman was losing grounds to Arafat in the territories. He added that Hussein's rapprochement had dealt a serious blow to the chances of peace with Jordan, because Arafat's Fatah group was the main force behind the renewed wave of terrorist activities.

The source said that the eight-man gang caught aboard the yacht Casselredit by the Israeli navy last month, had been intensively trained in Algeria to go on a killing mission in Kiryat Shmona.
