

Torah Book

Ethiopian Jews have maintained the Torah as a handwritten book, not as a scroll. This Torah is hundreds of years old, these men's only possession from Ethiopia. The man on the right is a Kes, a religious leader, which means he conducts services and performs marriages, but his position comes by heredity, not ordination.

TEL AVIV (WNS) — Prisoner of Conscience Yitzhak Shkolnik arrived in Israel from the Soviet Union via Vienna and was met at Ben-Gurion Airport by his wife Faiga and his 18-year-old daughter, Lousa, whom he had not seen for 13 years. He served a seven year prison sentence on charges of spying for Israel and teaching Hebrew.

Israeli General Acquitted In Death Of Two Arab Terrorists

JERUSALEM (WNS) — Brig. Gen. Yitzhak Mordechai was acquitted by a military disciplinary board of charges of "violent behavior" and conduct unbecoming an officer in the deaths of two Arab hijackers who died after they were led away handcuffed from a bus in the Gaza Strip to be interrogated.

The board ruled that injuries caused by Mordechai with the butt of his pistol were "not unreasonable" in light of the circumstances surrounding the interrogation of the terrorists, both of whom died shortly afterward of skull fractures. The board ruled that the interrogation was carried out "in order to obtain vital and immediate information" in time to prevent injuries from a suspected bomb left on the hijacked bus.

Israel's Attorney General had sought to have Mordechai prosecuted for causing grievous bodily harm to the two hijackers while they were in custody.
