

Las Vegas Hilton Appoints Casino Host

Dennis Gomes, senior vice president and director of casino operations at the Las Vegas Hilton, recently announced the appointment of Dan Chandler to casino host at the resort.

Chandler has 11 years experience with Caesars World Corporation. His most recent position with that organization was director of business development for all Caesars World casinos. Prior to that, he served as vice president of customer development for Caesars' Tahoe from 1980 to 1984.

"We are pleased that Dan has joined the staff of the Las Vegas Hilton," Gomes said, "and we're confident his experience and expertise will be a valuable asset to our organization."

Chandler is a graduate from the University of Kentucky where he was an accomplished athlete, playing varsity basketball and baseball for four years.

West Bank In Tension After Fatal Stabbing Of Israeli Soldiers

HEBRON (WNS) — An atmosphere of tension engulfed this West Bank town after the fatal stabbing of an Israeli soldier and the wounding of another in the casba. It is mainly between enraged Jewish settlers who blame government policities for the tragedy and the defense establishment which is trying to maintain order and avoid new confrontations between Jews and Arabs.

The latest victims of the mounting violence between the two was Avraham Sorek, a 38-year-old reservist who died of knife wounds on the way to Hadassah Hospital in Jerusalem. He was buried at Kibbutz Beit Oren, his home. Sorek, who immigrated to Israel from Chile several years ago, is survived by his wife; his 14-year-old daughter and two sons, aged nine and five.

Also stabbed but reported in stable condition following surgery at the Hadassah Hospital is another reserve soldier, Arye Bornstein of Haifa. He and Sorek were standing guard outside a vacant two-story flat in the old market section of Hebron known as the casba when they were attacked. Military sources said both soldiers, armed with assault rifles and grenades, were apparently taken by surprise.

It is not clear whether there were one or two assailants. A tight curfew was clamped on the casba and other parts of central Hebron. The city itself was declared a military zone. No one can enter or leave without a per-

John S. Park Elementary School will celebrate its 40th anniversary at its annual open house meeting, Wednesday, October 2, 1985 at 7:00 p.m. All former administrators, teachers, and students are invited to attend.

In addition to the open house activities, the evening's events will feature guest speakers, refreshments and a reunion celebration for past faculty and students.

The historic Park Elementary School opened in the 1940's and was first known as Huntridge School. Several Clark County schools bear the name of Park's early faculty members.

For more information regarding the event, contact Patti Roberts or Diane Reitz at 382-6191.
