

Simone Signoret Dead At 64

PARIS (WNS) — British film, "Room at the Top." Signoret was born March 25, 1921 in Wiesbaden, where her father was serving as an officer with the French occupation army in Germany. During the Nazi occupation of France, she took her mother's name, Signoret, to escape detection and possible deportation. Her father had fled to London to join the Free French forces.

Born of a Jewish father and a Catholic mother, Signoret always spoke of herself as Jewish and fought in all the battles of the Jewish people, from equal rights for Soviet Jews to Israel's right to survive.

Jewish audiences will probably remember her role as "Madame Rosa" in the film by Moshe Mizrahi and her roles in such politically inspired films as Costa Gavras' "L'Aveu" which denounces Stalinism and Communist state repression. She won an Academy Award for her starring role in the

French To Gorbachev: Free Dissidents

PARIS (WNS) — honor, and hundreds of red flags which lined Paris' main avenues and squares. The Mitterrand government, eager to improve relations with Moscow, has banned outdoor public demonstrations for the duration of Gorbachev's four-day visit — his first to a Western country since assuming power.

Explaining the reason for the academics' protest, Nobel Laureate Laurent Schwartz told a television interviewer shortly before Gorbachev's arrival that "the Soviet Union must understand that it cannot have a policy of scientific or technical cooperation with the Western world unless it changes its policy of repression."

Schwartz, who heads a French committee for the liberation of Shcharansky, added that, "Western intellectuals will refuse to cooperate with you, even if our own government adopts a different decision, as long as people such as Sakharov and Shcharansky are still imprisoned."

"We get complete health care coverage for only $5 a month."

Does it sound too good to be true? Believe it! Health Plan of Nevada has introduced a new program available to seniors in the Las Vegas area called Senior Dimensions. It's Medicare approved and covers virtually all of your medical costs. Even routine exams and hospitalization. Senior Dimensions takes over where Medicare leaves off. There are no deductibles. No claim forms. No worries. And members of Senior Dimensions have access to over 140 doctors and many other medical professionals throughout the Las Vegas valley. So take it from your fellow Las Vegas seniors. You owe it to yourself to learn about Senior Dimensions.
