Cyprus Not Likely To Extradite Three Terrorists

TEL AVIV (WNS) — Three PLO terrorists who murdered an Israeli couple and their friend aboard a yacht in Larnaca, Cyprus on Yom Kippur are not likely to be extradited to Israel for trial.

Israel's extradition request was presented to the Cypriot Foreign Ministry by Ambassador Meir Gavish who was promised a reply after it is studied by the Attorney General. But a Cypriot Government spokesman said it would be rejected on grounds that the murders were committed in Cyprus and Cyprus therefore is responsible to bring the killers to trial.

The heavily armed trio who seized the yacht at the Larnaca tourist marina before dawn on Yom Kippur and surrendered 10 hours later after committing triple murder, claimed they were Palestinians. Two of them, Elias Yeshiya and Nasif Mahmoud, apparently are, but the third, who initially gave his name as George Hannah, has been identified as an Englishman, Ian Michael Davison of South Shields. He described himself to television reporters as "a skinhead, a real young fascist thug."

Early reports from Larnaca indicated that Davison, alias Hannah, was German. The Israeli media, however, quoted British

Discover "The Secrets Of Steinway" All Week Long
At Southern Nevada Music

Steinway & Sons pianos are considered to be the Cadillac of the music industry. Ninety-eight percent of all concert artists will perform on a Steinway grand piano this season. During the week of October 14th thru October 19th, "The Secrets of Steinway" will be discussed by Mr. Daniel Saliba from the Steinway factory at 10 a.m., 1 and 4 p.m. at Southern Nevada Music Co., 953 E. Sahara Ave. (RSVP 731-4646).

Each seminar begins with a 22 minute video tape which explains the 1 year process by which this fine concert instrument is made. You will discover how the creation of each piano begins with the cutting of the wood, to later become the most incomparable instrument in the world. Each group will be able to explore at close range the 6 major dismantled components of a 7' grand on a specially guided tour of the instrument itself.

"The Steinway Company has made this presentation all over the United States, but this is the first time for Las Vegas," says Caryn Wunderlich Gott, president of Southern Nevada Music Co., who bought the store in 1981 along with her sisters Denise and Lisa.

On Monday, October 14th, there will be a demonstration and discussion by Steinway Artist, Laura Spitzer on "Musical Aptitude Inter-newspapers and the man's father as describing Davison, 27, as a neo-fascist with a reputation as a rowdy at soccer matches played by the Sunderland team of which he was an ardent fan. Davison told television reporters in Cyprus that he was among the 1,200 PLO fighters evacuated from Tripoli, northern Lebanon, to Yemen in 1983. He said he joined the PLO after seeing photographs of the 1982 Sabra and Shatila refugee camps massacres. He became a fervent supporter of PLO chief Yasir Arafat.

According to the British press, Davison belonged to the PLO elite unit known as France 17 which was formed originally as Arafat's bodyguard and later used to protect other leaders of El Fatah, the terrorist arm of the PLO. It was also used to liquidate anti-Arafat elements within the PLO and for special "showcase" terrorist acts against Israel.

pretations" beginning at 8 p.m. And on Thursday, October 17th, Elissa Stutz will play an in-store concert on the 9' Steinway Concert Grand also at 8 p.m. Both events are open to the public and free of charge. Please RSVP at 731-4646.

"This is an excellent opportunity for the people of Las Vegas to learn why this piano has held such a unique prestigious position world wide for over a century," says Denise Wunderlich.

The Wunderlich sisters are deeply involved in the community through their music work. Caryn, a graduate of Duquesne with a degree in music education, plays harp with the Las Vegas Symphonic Orchestra, and is the Assistant Professor of Harp at UNLV and The Nevada School of the Arts. She performs with Frank Sinatra, Sammy Davis, Jr., Melissa Manchester, and Wayne Newton to name a few. Denise is a graduate of UNLV with a degree in finance, and Lisa is due for a degree in communications next spring with a major in public relations. Denise and Lisa have performed as backup singers with Paul Anka and Barry Manilow and they continue to act and sing in theatrical productions here in Las Vegas.

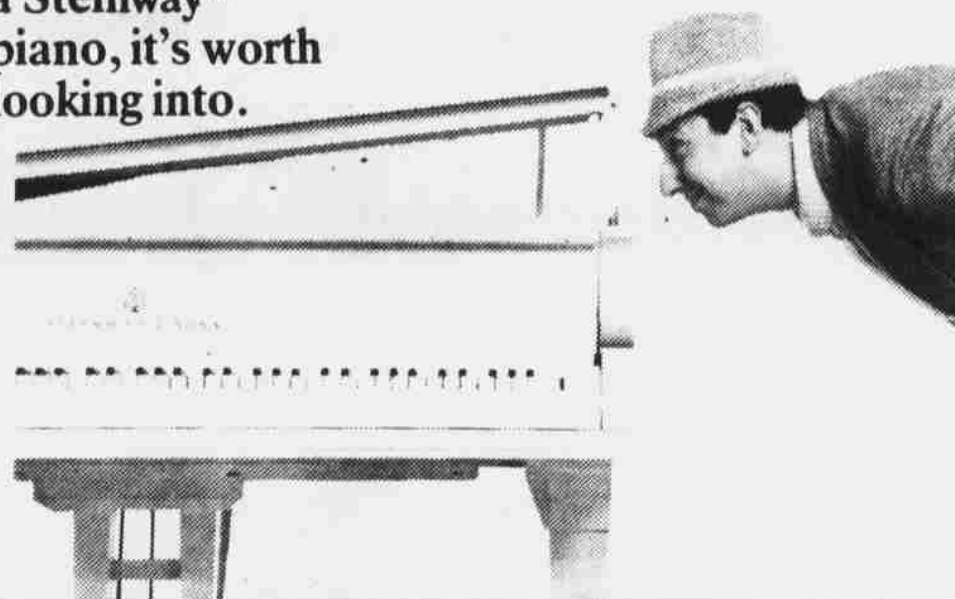

The 3 sisters are truly a unique trio. Through their broad training and experience, the Wunderlichs are very qualified to understand and meet the musical needs of the Las Vegas community.

Plan to attend this week long special "Secrets" event.

When something has been imitated and simulated as many times as a Steinway® piano, it's worth looking into.

Steinway began making pianos when manufacturing meant hand tools in the right hands. Integrity was the only shortcut. And the motive was more than profit.

Over the years Steinway dedication to quality was repaid when its secrets—the tricks of the trade—spawned a system of making pianos that is unique to Steinway & Sons. Today it's no wonder Steinway® is still the piano by which all others are judged.

So join your friends and neighbors and discover the secrets of Steinway. The choice of teachers, accomplished pianists and people who play for fun is worth looking into.
