The Jewish Community Lecture Series Foundation of Las Vegas is finalizing arrangements for the winter/spring 1986 annual lecture series. Now in its fourth year, Las Vegas will continue to experience leading Jewish personalities just as communities throughout the United States and Canada have for years, who will be examining central issues that are confronting Jews, Judaism and the world today.

Four nationally-prominent speakers have been contacted and confirmed, one coming each month starting with January. Temple Beth Sholom will be the host-facility this year. All five congregations are among the community-
