

The Hebrew Academy Honors Herb Kaufman At Caesars Palace Gala Sunday, November 17 - 6:00 P.M.

Meet The Honoree -- Herb Kaufman

Mr. Herb Kaufman was raised in St. Louis, Missouri and educated at Washington University, St. Louis, Missouri, and the University of Illinois, at Champagne, Illinois.

Busy, charitable, civic minded and kind are just a few of the adjectives to describe Herb Kaufman. He and his wife Irene and their two children, Jeff and Ricky, are rated among the first families of Las Vegas.

The honors bestowed are varied and almost too numerous to list in their entirety. However, in the past he has been a member of the United Way Campaign Advisory Board, United Way Foundation, Board of United Way, National Conference of Christians & Jews Advisory Board, Board of Blue Coats, Past President of Temple Beth Shalom, Board Member for Oran Gragson's Underprivileged Children, past Clark County Housing Commissioner, YMCA Advisory Committee, Advisory Board Opportunity Village, Chairman for the District Attorney's Victim Rights Committee, Board Member Nevada

Safety Council, Young Audiences Advisory Board, Advisory Board Boy Scouts of America. He was instrumental in the development of the Las Vegas Boys' Choir, was on the Board of Directors for the Las Vegas Symphony Society, Muscular Dystrophy, Multiple Sclerosis, Nevada Heart Association, Las Vegas Circus Saints and Sinners Club Association, Chairman of the Board for the Cancer Society of Nevada and Easter Seal Society, Easter Seals Telethon Chairman 1971 through 1974, National Governors Conference - Lake Tahoe, Nevada 1972, and Southern Nevada Memorial Hospital. He was one of the Founders of the Nevada Combined Health Agency for the State of Nevada and was on the Advisory Board for Orr Junior High School. He represented our Government at the Inauguration of the President and Vice President of Taiwan and headed a twenty-two member Trade Mission.

He still serves as vice chairman of the Board of Trustees of Humana Hospital Sunrise. He also serves on the board of the Nathan Adelson Hospice.

To name a few awards: He has received the Distinguished Service Award from the March of Dimes, Outstanding Performance award from the

The Hebrew Academy honors Herb Kaufman with Burton Cohen as master of ceremonies at its Third Annual Gala, Sunday, November 17, 6:00 p.m. at Caesars Palace.

Friends of the Academy will enjoy surprise star entertainment and fabulous raffle prizes including a one carat diamond ring and an all-expense paid weekend in La Costa.

The Academy, nationally recognized for its academic excellence, boasts a student body scoring in the 98th percentile on national tests, a full science laboratory, a computer for each child in the class, and three foreign languages as part of the regular curriculum.

Linda Cohen chairs the Gala with Roberta Sabbath co-chairing. Also serving are Amelia Blumberg, Carol Ellis, Samantha Pearlman, Jackie Boiman, Stephanie Kales, Dorothy Wanderer, Dr. Marvin Perer, Wendy Roselinsky, Sue Segal and Marilyn Mehr.

Tickets are $100.00 per person. For information call 384-4500.

Alexis Stokes operates a computer at the Hebrew Academy as Hila Yerushalmi looks on.

(L-R) Dr. Tamar Lubin Saposhnik, Principal of the Hebrew Academy; Linda Cohen, Chairman of the Gala & husband Burton Cohen, Master of Ceremonies.

National Foundation (March of Dimes), Torch of Hope award from the City of Hope Medical center Los Angeles, named "Sugar Daddy" by Juvenile Diabetic Foundation, received an award from the Lions International on behalf of Blind and Burn Center of Clark County, Nevada, Crusade Champion of American Cancer Society, the "Roger" award from the U.S. Air Force, award from the Fire Department and Metropolitan Police for participation in "Career Days" for young people and working with Senior Citizens groups, received Silver and Bronze awards from Boy Scouts of America and received a plaque of recognition - POW-MIA.

However, one of the things that made him most proud was the dedication of the Herb Kaufman Community Center, January 14, 1978.

He enjoys golf and hunting, collects stamps and plates.