Brandon Johnson, brand new grandson of Fran and Bernie Maza, owners of Special Occasion Gifts in the Commercial Center, Home of the Original "Pick A Party Package" is being introduced to Las Vegas this week by mom, Susan, in from Portland, Oregon.

Also, their outrageously adorable baskets are a unique treat -- can be made for any price considering one's budget and outside items may be incorporated -- free delivery in Las Vegas area. They also carry a very different line of cards and gifts, including a "Divorce Line." They've made their special baskets for such celebrities as Juliet Prowse, Englebert Humperdinck and President Reagan (who sent them a very nice thank you note.) A new service going into their second year, is giftwrapping, whether or not the gift is bought on the premises -- you can bring it in, pick it up the following day, or they'll even mail it for you! All at a nominal charge. If you get a chance, drop by -- I think you'll enjoy meeting Fran and Bernie, and I know you'll find the shop intriguing.
