A Coordinated War On Terrorism

The shadowy Palestinian terrorist group headed by Abu Nidal has emerged as the likely culprit of the outrage perpetrated last month at the airports in Rome and Vienna, in which 19 persons -- one Israeli and five Americans -- were killed and some 110 injured.

It does not take expertise in the muddle of Palestinian terrorism to realize that the Nidal group, though publicly a renegade faction disenchanted with the leadership of Yasir Arafat, began its terrorist career within the PLO. Those who seek to disassociate the PLO from Abu Nidal seek only to legitimize terror.

That Nidal has taken haven in Libya under the watchful eye of Col. Muammar Quadaffi should come as no surprise. The Libyan madman praised the airport massacre. He is also the latest in a growing line of Arab leaders who have played host to Nidal. At this point, a couple of weeks after the murderous assault by young Palestinians, the world awaits a proper, justified and measured response to the attack, and seeks to take measures to prevent other assaults.

Where does a nation begin? First Quadaffi and his state must be isolated, diplomatically, economically and culturally from the international community. As difficult as this may be, responsible nations should begin to realize that whatever they can obtain from Libya, it can easily be obtained elsewhere.

Furthermore, Western European countries must coordinate their intelligence activities to stay one step ahead of the terrorists. Extradition treaties should be examined and expanded to ensure due process of justice to the terrorists. Equally important is that world opinion knows who is behind these heinous crimes.

Clearly, no one can expect these attacks to be stopped completely and immediately. But by taking away a safe haven for terrorists, and ensuring that they emerge as the losers in any gambit, the free world can begin to effectively combat all terrorism.

Are The Arabs Plotting An All-Out Invasion?

UNITED NATIONS (WUP) — Ever since this world organization adopted the historic Partition Resolution on 29 November 1947 sanctioning the establishment of a Jewish sovereign State in Palestine along with a Palestinian domain, the malcontent Arabs -- although they could have had then what they now demand -- never gave up their satanic scheme to destroy Israel.

They tried and tried again and again and failed.

The leopard does not change his spots.

Based on recent movements by some of the Arab leaders in the Middle East -- King Hussein's sudden decision to make-up with his arch-enemy Assad who has moved his missiles back into Lebanon with the acquiescence of the Soviets coupled with the latest get-together of the contending militia factions in Lebanon under Damascus' initiative -- it appears to this writer that the Hashemite ruler -- whose past despicable record as a co-conspirator with the other Arabs against Israel is engraved in blood -- has shown his true colors again.

One may well ask: why his sudden flight to the Soviet-armed Damascus to confer with Israel's northern enemy who not so long ago forced the then hopeful Lebanon to abrogate its treaty with Jerusalem? Certainly not in the interest of real peace with the Jewish State. It was probably more to offer his long border with Israel in a conspiratorial plot for another round in a desperate attempt to bring Israel to its knees. Perhaps this time, he pondered, a combined Arab onslaught will succeed. Counting on Soviet weapons, Saudi Arabian petro-gold and more than mere Egyptian acquiescence with both local PLO and global terrorism at work, his dream of returning to his throne in Jerusalem will at last come true. Never!

It may be more than a coincidence that the ghastly and bloody PLO Fatah barbarian attacks at the El Al reception centers in Rome and Vienna took place precisely around the time when Hussein met with Assad and so soon after Assad returned his deadly missiles to Lebanon which was followed by the Damascus-initiated Lebanese militia pact. The connection reveals something. It reveals an inter-Arab-Fatah conspiracy linked to a common goal, the demise of Israel, a common hate, imbedded deep within the bosoms of the Arabs.

And though they may differ on a national basis, Syria and Libya with Iran in one camp against Iraq, Iran versus the oil-rich Gulf states and Iraq; Egypt against Libya, and constant border disputes between Libya and Tunisia, Algeria and Libya with Morocco in the middle -- all of them hold hands and unite on the issue of Israel. Egypt alone remains a question, and there's no telling exactly where a new Egypt will go. And Hussein flies hither and yon whichever way the hot Arab winds flow.

None of them, however, realize that the Hand of Providence directs and that the Rock of Israel has the last word. So let them plot and scheme, conspire and connive. The Watchman of Israel, as Psalm 83 declares, "will not keep silent, and remain still, -

"For, lo, Thine enemies are in an uproar; and they that hate Thee have lifted up the head. They hold crafty converse against Thy people, and take counsel together against Thy treasured ones. They have said: 'Come and let us cut them

Declared Ambassador Benjamin Netanyahu in an address before the UN Assembly last month entitled "Ending the Legacy of Hate": "What really caused the war between the New State of Israel and the Arabs was the total rejection of the very existence of the Jewish State in the Middle East. But even that does not fully get at the root of the matter. For the war waged by the extremists against the Jewish community in Palestine predates the establishment of Israel by decades..." Chaim Cohen Halala Murder Shocks ADL

NEW YORK, N.Y. — In a telegram to Lebanon's Ambassador to the United States, Dr. Abdallah Bou Habib, the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith said it was shocked at the murder in Beirut of a Lebanese Jew, Chaim Cohen Halala. The telegram, signed by Abraham H. Foxman, ADL's associate national director and head of the agency's International Affairs Division, also expressed concern for other missing Lebanese Jews and called on Lebanon to take all possible action to win their freedom.

The full text is as follows:

"The Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith is shocked by the report that Chaim Cohen Halala was found murdered in Beirut. We have called on you before to take action to win the release of the Lebanese Jews being held hostage. This horrible crime dramatically increases our concern for the remaining missing Jews. We urge your government to take all possible action now to win their freedom."

VIENNA (WNS) — A building accommodating several Jewish families was severely damaged by a bomb explosion. There were no injuries and no immediate clues, but a recent rash of anti-Semitic graffiti in the neighborhood points to neo-Nazis. The damaged building is owned by the Jewish Club for Culture and Education.
