Peres: PLO Does Not Want Peace Negotiations

JERUSALEM (WNS) — The PLO does not want negotiations, but told the Knesset, rather the destruction responding to two motions on the agenda on the subject.

Peres noted that whenever anybody tried to negotiate with the PLO, Arafat destroyed him. He said the crux of the Palestinian problem is terrorism. "Nobody caused more damage to the Palestinian cause than the PLO," he said.

Peres gave several examples. In 1970, the

PLO tried to destroy Jordan. In the early 80's it destroyed Lebanon. And last year, the PLO rejected several initiatives made by Jordan's King Hussein. Peres noted that the PLO ignored altogether the conditions Hussein had made for the inclusion of the PLO in the peace talks, namely the cessation of terror, the recognition of UN Security Council Resolutions 242 and 338, and the announcement that it was ready to negotiate with Israel.

Reacting to a motion made by Dr. Matityahu Peled of the Progressive List for Peace, Peres said: "Arafat should respond to those Amman.
