

Valley Bank Officers Receive Sales Awards

Richard A. Etter, Chairman of the Board of Valley Bank of Nevada, recently presented awards to officers of the bank for outstanding credit card sales over the past six months.

Almost 75 officers attended luncheon meetings in both Northern and Southern Nevada for the purpose of honoring those with outstanding sales.

Denise Bastone, Assistant Vice President and Financial Services Manager of Valley Bank's

Mission Center branch took first place bank-wide for selling almost 100 credit cards during the past six months. She received two ounces of gold for her efforts.

James Bandy, Assistant Vice President, Geographic Sales, was the second place winner and received one ounce of gold. Third place in credit card sales went to Tom Siegert, Assistant Vice President and Financial Services Manager of the Moana Branch in Reno.

All officers in attendance at the awards presentation luncheons sold a minimum of ten credit cards. The sales contest was held for the purpose of promoting the Gold MasterCard product, which has an extremely low interest rate.

Nazi War Criminals In U.S. To Be Deported

WASHINGTON (WNS) — The U.S. Board of Immigration Appeals has rejected the appeal of Reinhold Kulle, a former SS guard leader at the Gross-Rosen concentration camp who was ordered deported in 1984 by the Federal Immigration Court in Chicago. In a rare move, the Board of Immigration Appeals also took action that is expected to result in the cancellation of Kulle's social security benefits.

Kulle, 65, admitted during his 1983 trial that he had served during World War II as an officer in the "Totenkopf" (Death's Head) division of the Waffen-SS at the notorious Gross-Rosen camp in Upper Silesia.

In affirming the lower court's deportation order, the BIA noted that Kulle's SS service "primarily consisted of being a guard and training guards who made the brutal Nazi concentration camp system achieve its goals."

Hospice Humanitarian Awards Presented

"Father Dan is deeply committed to hospice. His pastoral care and spiritual counseling constantly support our hospice families and our own staff," said Deadrich. "We all know that Father Dan is never more than a phone call away."

Bill Nolan recently presented a $1,266.95 check to the Hospice on behalf of the Las Vegas 7-11 employees.

"The Nathan Adelson Hospice is known throughout the Nation for three things," Deadrich continued, "our high standard of care, our beautiful facility and the fact that we accept all appropriate terminally ill patients, without regard to their ability to pay. All three of these distinguishing and humanitarian NAH characteristics are possible only because of the generous private support and voluntary efforts exemplified by the Nolans and concerned organizations like Southland."
