New $25 Slot Machines Are Turned "Loose" At Caesars Palace Casino Resort

Las Vegas, Nev. - Caesars Palace has recently added a carousel of six new slot machines which take specially minted $25 silver tokens that are fast becoming collectors' items.

Donald L. Allison, President and Chief Operating Officer of Caesars Palace, said, "We have a wonderful variety of slot progressives and jackpots totalling more than six million dollars, but the most attractive and appealing factor of this $25 slot carousel is the frequency of payoff."

Allison continued that in the first week of the machines' operations, two $25,000 jackpots were won by players. The most recent winner, Steve Delonga of Fairfax, Virginia, said he had played the machine only three minutes and had inserted only eight tokens when he hit the jackpot.

Here on vacation, Mr. Delonga said it feels "great" to win $25,000 and he thinks that Caesars Palace is "first class."

All winning aside, however, Allison said the interesting thing about this particular slot game is that the tokens are being held by the customers as collectors' items.

Glatt Kosher Department Opens At The Tel Aviv Hilton

NEW YORK, NEW YORK — The Tel Aviv Hilton's popular Glatt Kosher department for special events has widened in its scope of activities. The hotel's special kitchen has been enlarged and additional cutlery and dishes purchased -- all of which underwent the purification ritual "Tefilat Kelim," making utensils Glatt Kosher for the sole use of the department.

All the products used in the department have the "Hechsher" of Badatz (Jerusalem), the Beit Din Tsedek and the Bnei Brak Rav, Rav Landau. The Tel Aviv Hilton is the only hotel to have received a "Glatt" certificate from the Chief Rabbinate of Tel Aviv - Jaffa for its very observant orthodox guests.

The Tel Aviv Hilton's luxurious event halls have been equipped with a Mechtiza in order to separate men and women during functions of a religious nature. The halls also have separate entrances.

The department is under the direction of a dynamic Jerusalem-born Rabbi, Menachem Klein, who considers this Glatt Kosher department an important and encouraging addition which will undoubtedly contribute immensely to Orthodox tourism to Israel.

Produced by Jani Enterprises, Inc. of Philadelphia, each coin weighs 1-1/2 troy ounces of .999 pure silver and measure 1.95 inches in diameter. The coins must be purchased at Caesars Palace. Whether you're a collector or a player, with a maximum two-coin bet, you could also be a $25,000 winner!
