

26th Semiannual Art Show At The Boulevard Mall

New Mexico artist Dick Schneider painting at The Boulevard.

Don Palmer's World of Art is presenting 50 professional artists from 12 U.S. states, now through Sunday, January 26, at The Boulevard Mall, Maryland Parkway at Desert Inn Avenue in Las Vegas.

The artists are showing and selling about 2,500 pieces of their original works of art - oil paintings, watercolors, etchings, graphics, metal-sculptured fountains, portraiture, pottery, woodcarvings and life-like bald eagles.

Several of the artists brought their paints, brushes, chisels and acetelyene torches and are painting and sculpting during the show.

"I've brought together a wide range of art for this show," says Palmer. "Of the 50 artists exhibiting at The Boulevard Mall, you'll hardly find two that are even similar. I think variety is what makes an art show interesting."

Show hours are: 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. Monday through Friday; 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturday; and 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Sunday.

Helene Gorbena BBG Held Fundraiser

Late this past year, Helene Gorbena BBG held a fundraiser for the benefit of the Lupus Foundation here in Las Vegas. Under the chairmanship of Daniella Eilat they held a Bingo and the public was invited to attend. They felt that the Lupus Foundation, which is a relatively new organization, needed financial support to build a Lupus Clinic here in Las Vegas. They became aware of Lupus through their past BBYO City Director Mort Kirsch, who has lupus. Their way of saying Thanks Mort, for the many years of service to BBYO.

NEW YORK (WNS) — A 15th-century Hebrew Bible, the oldest recorded Hebrew manuscript written and dated in Prague, went on display January 12 for the first time in this country as part of a Yeshiva University Museum exhibition, "Ashkenaz, World/German Jewry." The Bible, valued at $500,000, was smuggled out of Germany in 1940.

Jordan from California welding metal-sculptured clowns; Hank Maynard from Montana painting western history; Linda Neilson from Las Vegas showing weavings; Dick and Jan Schneider from New Mexico painting New Mexico impressions; Carole Bourdo from Colorado painting Indians; Jack and Sondra Pascoe from Illinois painting egg art; Irwin Zeller from California painting portraits; Trish Williams from Colorado showing Indian-type pottery; Roy Waddups from Utah painting burl slabs; and Steve Gardner from California sketching cartoons.

Also highlighting the show are George Lee's South Pacific marine scenes; Sacramento, California artist Don Griffith's watercolors; and Colorado artist Leona Rubin's Indian art.
