Since stress has been linked with coronary heart disease and February is National Heart Month, health educators from the Clark County Health District are scheduling a 2-1/2 hour class on "How to Manage Stress," February 20 (Thursday), 7 p.m., in the Clemens Room of the District Health Center, 625 Shadow Lane, Las Vegas. The class is free and open to the public but registration is necessary. To register, phone the Clark County Health District education office, 383-1217.

Reunion dates have been set for August 8-10, 1986, and the Clark High School Class of 1976 reports the search is on for graduates.

Nearly half of the 740 graduates have been located, however, the reunion committee is still seeking current mailing addresses for 300 persons.

For more information, contact Clark High or the reunion committee, in care of Shelly Harris, 384-1411.

The Children's Dental Health Fair will be teaching and promoting good dental hygiene. This one day event at The Meadows will take place in Penney's Court between 10:00 a.m. and 6:00 p.m., Saturday, February 22, 1986. This should be a "must" for the younger children to attend. This fair is free and any child may participate. The Meadows is located between Valley View and Decatur Blvds., just south of the Las Vegas Expressway.

Vice President and Regional Manager of the Newspaper Advertising Bureau Cynthia Baker will speak about "The Future of Advertising" at the February 14th meeting of the Greater Las Vegas Advertising Federation at Palace Station. Buffet lunch will be served at noon and will be followed by Baker's presentation. The cost for non-members of the Greater Las Vegas Advertising Federation is $15.00.

Caesars Palace will host the Second Annual Rainbow of Miracles Dinner Auction on March 14, 1986 to benefit the Muscular Dystrophy Association.

Area businesses donate products and services to the local chapter of the Muscular Dystrophy Association. These items are then auctioned at a first-class black tie affair with all proceeds benefiting those Southern Nevadans with one of 40 neuromuscular diseases.

There will be something for everyone available at the Rainbow Auction including trips to Hawaii, San Diego, Los Angeles, San Francisco; jewelry, ski items, dinners, shows...and much, much more.

Tickets will be $40 single, $80 couple and Rainbow Tables of Eight (8) with preferential seating and table favors are $360. If you would like to make a tax deductible item donation or if you are interested in attending, please call Chris Murray at 737-3103.

Seniors, The Dula Community Center, 430 E. Bonanza Road, offers a variety of activities for your physical fitness enjoyment. Paddle tennis, racquetball, cribbage, table tennis and shuffleboard are offered each Wednesday, Thursday and Friday from 9:00 to 11:00 a.m. For more information call 386-6307.

Ticket stubs from any event at the Thomas and Mack Center or Sam Boyd Silver Bowl may be redeemed for a free breakfast or two cocktails at the Tropicana Hotel up to one week after the event.

The Tropicana Hotel recently extended the redemption deadline to one week. Previously, fans could only receive their breakfast or cocktails within 24 hours of the event.

The ticket offer, honored 24 hours a day, is limited to fans who are at least 21 years old.

Gary Reddick, president of Acura Automobiles of Las Vegas, recently announced that Joyce & Martin Advertising, Inc. has been selected as the agency of record to handle all advertising and publicity for the new dealership.

Acura Automobiles is scheduled to open this spring at 5550 W. Sahara. The dealership will offer the newest and most prestigious line of Honda automobiles. Also included in the 16,000 square foot facility will be used car sales and a complete maintenance and repair shop.

Joyce & Martin is one of the state's largest advertising agencies with offices in Las Vegas and Reno. The full service agency works in promoting a wide range of products and services both locally and nationally.

Interested in your health? Join Baker Park Community School and learn Photographic Iris Analysis. Find out how your iris reflects the condition of your body. Class will be held on Wednesday, February 26, from 6:30-8:30 p.m. Class fee is $5. For more information, call 733-6599.

More than 30 art works by "the hottest new talent in the state of Arizona" will be on display in "Arizona 8," a debut art exhibit appearing in UNLV's Alta Ham Fine Arts Gallery through March 7.

The sculptures, paintings, prints, jewelry, and other mixed-media works by eight major Arizona artists are primarily abstract and examine a variety of subjects and themes. Several of the works will also be displayed in UNLV's Museum of Natural History.

All activities are free and open to the public. Gallery hours are 11 a.m. - 4 p.m. weekdays, and Saturday by appointment. UNLV's Museum of Natural History is open 9 a.m.-5 p.m. weekdays, 10 a.m.-5 p.m. Saturdays, and 1-5 p.m. Sundays. For additional information on the exhibit or any related event, call 739-3893.
