Deloreans To Rally At Imperial Palace

This DeLorean with license plate "83 LAST 1" was the first to be signed up for "Las Vegas Weekend" sponsored by DeLorean Owners Association. One hundred DeLoreans will caravan from Victorville, California to the IMPERIAL PALACE HOTEL & CASINO in Las Vegas for a weekend of mutual admiration April 4-6. Robbie Robinson's DeLorean posed for this photo at the Mt. Charleston Lodge.

(John Leach-vocals, keyboard, horns and saxophone, Tony Smith-lead vocals, keyboards and trumpet and Mack Clayton-percussionist) with much of the group's popularity and success. "Each member of the band sings and plays at least three instruments...that's what gives us such a big sound," explains Ramsey.

The versatile quartet has been performing together for over four years, entertaining with a broad range of musical styles that include Country, Top 40, jazz and a taste of Rhythm & Blues.

Check out The Jay Ramsey Band in the Americana Lounge which features a delicious assortment of appetizers and drinks with no minimum and no cover. Stop in Tuesday through Saturday, 8 P.M. to 1 A.M., through March 22.

The Imperial Palace Hotel & Casino will be the site April 4-6 of a large meeting of the DeLorean Owners Association. Approximately 100 of the stainless steel sports cars will caravan from Victorville, California to the Imperial Palace at the center of the Las Vegas Strip.

A full schedule has been planned beginning with a welcoming cocktail party Friday night (April 4th). On Saturday the group will tour the Imperial Palace Antique & Classic Auto Collection (which includes a DeLorean among the 200 autos on display). They will then tour the Restoration Shop where cars are prepared for display in the Collection or for auctions.

The DeLoreans will then line up for a Road Rallye to Bonnie Springs/Old Nevada. A technical seminar is scheduled in the afternoon, given by the Association's Technical Director, Kjell Myhre, and Technical Advisor, Don Steger. The two will give a presentation on repairs and answer questions regarding the DeLorean automobile to help the owners make repairs themselves or find the right expert to help.

At the banquet Saturday night rallye trophies will be presented, Association products will be displayed, and plans will be announced for the DeLorean Owners Association National Convention set for Chicago July 25-27.

The owners of the beautiful DeLorean auto, a "legend in motion," will then attend the hit Imperial Palace show Legends In Concert."

Israeli Soldier Killed, Four Wounded In South Lebanon

JERUSALEM (WNS) — An Israeli soldier was killed in south Lebanon and four others were wounded in a clash with terrorists near Batsil mountain at the western end of the border security zone, a military spokesman announced.

The dead soldier was identified as Cpt. Ronnen Malka of Migdal Haemek. The wounds suffered by the four other soldiers were described as light and medium. Malka was the first Israel Defense Force fatality since the IDF was pulled out of south Lebanon after a fruitless four-day search for two soldiers kidnapped by Shiite Muslim extremists.
