

Purim At Hadassah-Hebrew University Medical Center

Purim is an extra special holiday at the Hadassah-Hebrew University Medical Center where volunteers create the magic world of Shushan for desperately ill children. Their reward: smiles and singing, unusual from sick children who for a few precious hours forget their illness. Purim is also the anniversary of the founding of Hadassah 74 years ago by Henrietta Szold, whose initial delegation of two nurses has developed over the years into the Hadassah Medical Organization, the Mideast's pacesetter in healing, teaching and research.

BONN (WNS) — The municipal council of the university town of Marburg, overriding objections by local residents, voted unanimously last week to rename a street in honor of Leopold Lucas, a Jewish theologian who died in the Theresienstadt concentration camp in 1943. Lucas was the founder in 1902 of an association for Jewish studies in Marburg.

Audiences Roar At Rocky Sennes' Revue

Rocky Sennes with dancers from the "Roaring '20s Revue"

Las Vegas entertainment pioneer Rocky Sennes knows what it takes to dazzle an audience.

"I think people want to be able to come in, sit down, and enjoy themselves," he says. "They want to have laughs, some fun, and relax, because this is the reason for getting out."

Sennes' formula for good time entertainment materializes nightly, except Sundays, in his colorful "Roaring '20s Revue" on stage at the Holiday Casino/Holiday Inn on the Center Strip.

The fast-paced show takes the audience on a 90-minute trip through time, back to the "anything goes" era of flappers and bath tub gin. Feathers fly during high-spirited song and dance numbers, divided by four of Las Vegas' highest acclaimed specialty acts.

A talented trio, The Walkers, elicit "double-takes" with their amazing impressions and never-ending versatility in song and comedy. The Walkers share the stage with hula-hoop phenomenon Diane Batchelor, the hilarious Tandaricas and comedian/ventriloquist Kenny Stuart.

"It's a fun show. I think its got great music," Sennes adds. "It's an easy show to get locked into."

At only $6.95 per person, the rollicking show, touted as Las Vegas' best entertainment bargain, provides an inexpensive night of entertainment that brings people back again and again.

"The Roaring '20s Revue" is onstage at 9 and 11:30 p.m. weekdays, and 8 and 10 p.m. Saturdays, with a special Saturday late show at 12:30 a.m.

TEL AVIV (WNS) — A fire which swept through the Aviv Matza bakery in the religious township of Bnei Brak sent two firemen to the hospital for treatment for smoke inhalation and destroyed more than 100,000 packages of matza intended for export.

$10,000 Indoor Putt-Off Tournament Set At Imperial Palace March 28-30

Bob Burnie and Art Roushkolb give Sheryl Casano some putting advice before the Imperial Palace's "Partners Best Ball Indoor Putt-Off Tournament" set for March 29th. Total prize money is $10,000; entry fee is $125 per person. Call the Casino Office for entry information, 731-3311.

Registration is underway for the "Partners Best Ball Indoor Putt-Off Tournament" at the Imperial Palace Hotel & Casino, Las Vegas, NV.

Total prize money for the event is $10,000. The two partners who take first place will split $5,000; second place winners share $2,000. Prize money also goes to the teams placing third through sixth.

Entry fee for the tournament is $125 per person. If a player does not have a partner, he (or she) will be paired off in a random drawing at a Welcome Cocktail Party Friday, March 28, the night before the tournament.

The tournament will begin at 9:00 a.m. Saturday, March 29 in the Royal Halls on the third floor of the Imperial Palace. An Awards Banquet will complete the fun-filled weekend.

To enter the Indoor Putt-Off, contact the Casino Office of the Imperial Palace at (702) 731-3311 or toll free (800) 351-7400.
