Israel Warns Syria On Golan Heights

JERUSALEM (WNS) — Two Cabinet Ministers warned Syria not to undertake any "adventures" toward recapturing the Golan Heights nor to assume that its hope to achieve strategic parity with Israel could ever lead to Israel's military defeat.

At the same time, however, Deputy Premier and Minister of Housing and Construction David Levy invited both Syria and King Hussein of Jordan to sit down with Israel and rationally talk about peace.

Levy, who was addressing the International Israel Bonds 35th anniversary conference here, rejected an international conference to deal with peace between Israel and its two Arab neighbors. He said it was in-

UNITED NATIONS (WNS) — Benjamin Netanyahu, Israel's Ambassador to the United Nations, examined the file on former UN Secretary General Kurt Waldheim at the UN archives here and said afterwards that the contents of the file indicated that the matter of Waldheim's alleged Nazi past cannot be "laid to rest."

Representatives of the Austrian Mission to the UN, who also examined the file at the UN archives the same day, issued a statement that they had inspected the documents but of-

Historic Meeting

For the first time in his Presidency, Ronald Reagan met with a representative group of Jewish leaders in the White House when he briefed a delegation of the Conference of Presidents of Major American Jewish Organizations, headed by its chairman, Kenneth J. Bialkin (left). The President said he would never sell arms to moderate Arab countries that would threaten the security of Israel and that nothing would be done to diminish Israel's "qualitative and quantitative" military edge. He also urged support for his $100 million assistance programs to the Contras in Nicaragua, asserting: "Our supply lines to Israel and NATO run through the Caribbean." Center, Richard Murphy, Assistant Secretary of State, who also spoke.

Velvel Pasternak

Lecture

Temple Beth Sholom

Sunday - April 20 - 7:30 P.M.

VELVEL PASTERNAK is the fourth and last guest on the 4th Annual Jewish Community Lecture Series of Las Vegas, Sunday, April 20th at 7:30 P.M., at this year's host-facility, Temple Beth Sholom. All five congregations have joined community-spirited individuals and organizations in making the series available to the general public at no charge. It will be "An Evening Of and About Hassidic Music."

Velvel Pasternak's name has become synonymous with Hassidic music. His eighteen recordings and eight books have become the definitive works in their field. Mr. Pasternak has
