UNLV's Division of Continuing Education will offer a Wellness and Nutrition Workshop April 29, 4-9 P.M., and May 3, 8 A.M. - 6 P.M., that will examine the characteristics of a proper wellness program.

This one-credit workshop, designed for school teachers, coaches, physical educators, health-care professionals, and others will discuss how to detect an improper diet and replace it with a beneficial wellness program tailored to the individual's needs.

Guest speakers will join UNLV professors Dr. Lawrence Golding and Dr. Warren McNab in examining nutrition, weight control, stress management, and physical activity. A special session will be related to chemical dependence on substances such as tobacco, alcohol, caffeine, sedatives, marijuana, and other drugs.

For additional information, call 739-3394.

The Las Vegas Singles Council Annual Spring Fling Dance will be held April 26th at the Sahara Space Center. Live music, entertainment and many surprise guests. All singles should plan to attend.
