

King Hussein Emphatically Denies Contact With Israel

JERUSALEM (WNS) — King Hussein of Jordan is furious over a statement Premier Shimon Peres made that "secret contacts between Israel and Jordan" have taken place in the context of quiet diplomacy, Voice of Israel Radio.

It said the Jordanians lost no time in registering their anger with the Prime Minister's Office in Jerusalem. Hussein was especially unhappy with the publication of Peres' remarks on the eve of an Arab summit meeting scheduled to be held in Fez, Morocco. He emphatically denied any contacts with Israel.

Peres cautioned that whatever progress was made with Jordan was characterized by mutual understanding rather than any agreement. Foreign Minister Yitzhak Shamir, the Likud leader, seemed to confirm that contacts had been made when he asserted that they had failed to produce any tangible results.

Arab Terrorists Arrested In Murder Of British Tourist

TEL AVIV (WNS) — Security sources announced the arrest of the terrorists who fatally shot British tourist Paul Appleby in the Old City of Jerusalem and who may be responsible for at least one other murder and two attempted murders of tourists there during the past two months.

The suspects were said to belong to the Abu Moussa faction of the PLO, which broke away from the mainstream PLO headed by Yasir Arafat and is reportedly backed by Syria. A Jerusalem magistrates court banned the release of further details.

Appleby, 28, was killed by a .22 caliber bullet fired into the base of his skull as he was about to enter the Garden Tomb, the burial place of Jesus according to Protestant tradition. The same caliber bullet murdered an Israeli businesswoman, Zehavia Ben-Ovadia, in her office near the Damascus Gate.

The suspects are also believed to have wounded an American Jewish tourist, David Blumenfeld, in the Old City, and a German woman tourist, Blumenfeld, a Conservative rabbi from Long Island, is executive director of the New York City Holocaust Memorial Commission. He was shot in the head. The German woman sustained a slight wound as she and her husband were entering a Christian shrine in the Old City.
