Shamir In New York Enroute To Central America

NEW YORK (WNS) Israel is interested in renewing its talks with Egypt on autonomy for the Palestinians in the West Bank and Gaza Strip and to bring other participants into the negotiations, Foreign Minister Yitzhak Shamir said here at a special press briefing. He said the other participants could include Jordan and Palestinian representatives who are not associated with the PLO.

Shamir made a brief stopover in New York enroute to Central America for a four-day visit. "I believe that the most realistic approach to advance peace in the Middle East is by resuming negotiations in the framework of the Camp David accords," Shamir said. He added, "Camp David is the only tangible achievement for peace so far in the Middle East." He noted that Israel has invited Jordan to negotiate for peace without preconditions. "As far as we understand Jordan, she is reluctant to join in negotiations on her own. She seeks partners for those negotiations. Unfortunately, we can't the Middle East provide partners," because talks between Shamir said. Nevertheless, he said he still thinks the peace process is still alive in Israel and Egypt are still taking place and there are as well, "contacts with Jordan."
