Nearly 300 Adult Education Program students will graduate this year from the Clark County School District. A first-ever graduation ceremony for these students will be held June 3, 3 P.M. at the Cashman Field Auditorium. An estimated one-third of the graduates will take part in the special commencement exercise.

The centralized ceremony is for students who completed their high school education by attending classes at one of 19 daytime or three night time adult education sites located in Las Vegas, Henderson and Boulder City.

UNLV is sponsoring the National Youth Sports Program (NYSP) for the economically disadvantaged children of Las Vegas from June 16 to July 22.

The five-week program will provide instruction for boys and girls ages 10-16 in swimming, basketball, volleyball, tennis, dance, racquetball, gymnastics, and new games.

Applications for the summer program can be obtained at Operation Life, 649-0931. A parent's signature is required.

For further information, call 739-3369.

The Meadows is excited to present a Swimwear Fashion Show on Saturday, May 24, 1986 at 1:30 and 2:30 P.M. in Center Court.

NEW YORK (WNS) — A grove of trees honoring the Russian composer Dmitri Shostakovich has been established in Jerusalem's Neveh Ya'akov neighborhood by the Jewish National Fund. The grove was sponsored by musicians of the Israel Philharmonic Orchestra and the Israel Information Center for Soviet Jewry, in recognition of Shostakovich's life-long compassion for the plight of Soviet Jewry.

SAN FRANCISCO (WNS) — The San Francisco Board of Supervisors voted 8-2 to approve the city's 10-year contract with the American containership service of the Zim Lines, Israel's national shipping company, after company officials said they were ready to sign an affidavit affirming that it does not do business with South Africa.

The very latest poolside fashions will be shown for women, men and children.

In conjunction with swimwear, out-door recreational items will be featured throughout the Shopping Center.

The Meadows is located between Valley View and Decatur Blvds., just south of the Las Vegas Expressway.

UNLV's 23rd Commencement is set for Sunday, May 25, 2 P.M., in the Thomas and Mack Center. Some 700 of the 1,343 students who completed their degree programs in August or December 1985 or May 1986 are expected to attend.

Undergraduate baccalaureate degrees total 1,021; graduate degrees, 218; doctor of education degrees, 7; specialist in education, radiologic technology, 18.

This year's commencement speaker is Harrison Salisbury, long-time New York Times reporter, Pulitzer Prize-winning foreign correspondent, and expert on affairs in Communist nations.

Mr. Salisbury was associated with The New York Times from 1949 through 1975, serving as correspondent and editor and originator of the op-ed page.

He has traveled extensively in China, most recently in 1984 when, after 12 years of trying, he was allowed to retrace the Long March of 1934-35. The Long March has come to symbolize China's Communist Revolution.

In recent years, Salisbury has published "Without Fear of Favor: An Uncompromising Look at The New York Times;" "The Unknown War," an account of the German-Russian battles on the Eastern front during 1941-45; "Black Night, White Snow: Russia's Revolution 1905-17," and other books.

Birdie is to Eagle as putt is to drive...right? It is if you're talking golf and your goal is to help drive out dystrophy.

That's the aim of this year's Southern Nevada Life Underwriters as they host their 3rd Annual Golf Tournament to benefit the Muscular Dystrophy Association. The event will be staged at the Sahara Country Club on Friday, May 30, with tee times beginning from 11:00 A.M.

Four man handicapped scramble teams will compete for a variety of prizes and trophies. The event will also feature a closest to the pin and longest drive competitions.

The tax deductible entry fee is $50 with the deadline for entries being Saturday, May 24.

For further information call Gary Wolf at 646-3034 or the MDA office at 737-3103.

The Western High School Class of 1966 will soon host its 20 Year Class Reunion in Las Vegas. If you graduated from Western High School in 1966, it is requested that you call the school at 799-4080 and leave your name, address and phone number. You may also contact Darlyne Planck at 796-1876.

Nominations for Clark County Father of the Year are being accepted by the Clark County Fathers' Day Committee.

Send nominations and the reasons that Dad should be selected to Fathers' Day Committee, P.O. Box 15477, Las Vegas, Nv. 89114. For further information, call 733-6072.

Southern Nevada fathers will be honored June 14 at the Dunes Hotel during the Second Annual Clark County Fathers' Day Celebration.

Although all area fathers will be paid tribute, selection of outstanding paternal parents will be made for special recognition in a variety of categories: business, sports, entertainment, religious, government, music, radio, television, the printed press, and many others.

The June 14 event at the Dunes will present family entertainment for the fathers, for their spouses, families and friends.

Come explore the world of fine art as The Boulevard Mall presents its Spring Fine Art Showcase for six days, through Monday, May 26.

Original art will be offered in a variety of mediums, including oils, pastels, acrylics, pen and inks, watercolors and serigraphs. Art lovers are sure to find something delightful amidst the array of soft florals, powerful seascapes, intriguing landscapes, colorful abstracts, realistic wildlife scenes, and imaginative fantasy renditions.

Molly Legend will be demonstrating her talent of painting in Egyptian Hieroglyphics, and will be pleased to take custom orders. Las Vegas' own Rodney Webb will be displaying his nostalgic scenes of the old west, and Los Angeles artist Suz Rawn will present her popular oriental triptychs.

You'll find nature captured in amazing photographs, sophisticated sculptured carpet wallhangings, and brilliant stained glass windows which may be ordered to suit your decor. Sculpted metal wall pieces will be available at the showcase as well, and you may want to take home a sparkling metal water fountain, perfect for home or office.

Enjoy meeting the artists and learning more about them and their work. Visit The Boulevard Mall during regular mall hours Wednesday through Friday, 10:00 A.M. - 9:00 P.M., Saturday, 10:00 A.M. - 6:00 P.M., Sunday, 11:00 A.M. - 5:00 P.M., and Monday, Memorial Day, 10:00 A.M. - 6:00 P.M. The Boulevard Mall is located at Maryland Parkway and Desert Inn Road.
