

JEWISH NEWS BRIEFS

HAMBURG (WNS) — Pianist Vladimir Horowitz was presented with the Order of Merit of the Federal Republic of Germany by Hamburg mayor Klaus von Dohnanyi following his concert there which was his first performance in Germany in 58 years. Horowitz also played in Berlin, where a sell-out crowd honored the 81-year-old pianist with a standing ovation which lasted nearly half an hour.

JERUSALEM (WNS) — The executive committee of the West German Bundestag, headed by Bundestag president Philipp Jenninger, was in Israel for a five-day visit and was present at the opening of the summer session of the Knesset. The delegation also met with Israeli President Chaim Herzog, Prime Minister Shimon Peres and other leaders. Jenninger said he was impressed by Israel's will to advance the peace process.

AMSTERDAM (WNS) — Foreign Minister Hans Van Den Broek returned from a one-day visit to Tunisia openly pessimistic about peace prospects in the Middle East, especially after an hour-long meeting in Tunis with PLO chief Yasir Arafat. He met with Arafat in his capacity as chairman of the European Economic Community (EEC) Council of Ministers.

TEL AVIV (WNS) — Negotiations between Israel and West Germany on a joint foundation for scientific research and development have been concluded, according to an announcement by a West German Ministry of Research official in Tel Aviv. The formal agreement establishing the DM150 million project is to be signed this summer.

TEL AVIV (WNS) — The Supreme Court entered the Demjanjuk case for the first time ordering Ukrainian-born John Demjanjuk, alleged Treblinka concentration camp guard, remanded in custody for an additional 30 days while the state prosecutor and police continue gathering evidence for his trial. Demjanjuk, a former U.S. citizen who is the first suspected war criminal extradited to Israel, has been in detention at Ayalon prison for 90 days.

KIAMESHA LAKE, N.Y. (WNS) — Neo-Nazis in Chile and Paraguay are waging a war of vandalism and terrorism against the Jewish communities in those countries, Rabbi Angel Kreiman of the Comunidad Israelite Sefardi Congregation in Santiago told delegates to the 86th annual convention of the Rabbinical Assembly, the organization of Conservative rabbis in the U.S. and Canada.

TEL AVIV (WNS) — The condition of Rabbi Alexander Schindler, the American Jewish leader who suffered a heart attack while touring Massada, was reported by the Soroka Hospital in Beersheba to have improved slightly. He has made it through the critical first 24 hours, and his condition is a bit better, Hospital sources said. Schindler's wife is the only person presently allowed to visit him in the Soroka intensive care unit. Schindler, former chairman of the Conference of Presidents of Major American Jewish Organizations, suffered a heart attack 12 years ago but was believed to have fully recovered before the present attack.

RICHMOND, Va. (WNS) — Governor Gerald Baliles has announced the creation of a special commission to promote and expand the economic development, educational and cultural opportunities between Virginia and Israel, in commemoration of the upcoming 40th anniversary of the founding of the State of Israel in 1988.
