she was featured in Saturday's women's wrestling matches free to the public from 2-5 p.m. The matches are heading for syndicated TV under the rubric "GLOW: The Gorgeous Ladies of Wrestling," emanating from the Riv's Foxy Boxing Room, located adjacent to BUDD FRIEDMAN's IMPROV where standup comics wrestle with hecklers every night.

MUSCULAR DYSTROPHY ASSOCIATION (MDA) tosses a wingding Sunday titled "Keys to a Cure," 2 p.m. in Sahara Space Center. Benefit is finale to MDA's Keyboard Classic -- with music students in our area enticing sponsors for number of hours they practiced during May. Celeb entertainers expected to lure people at $2 per, are SAMMY DAVIS JR., RONN LUCAS, MARIO & DANIEL, COOK E JARR & THE KRUMS, DENNY DENT, with cohosts GARY WADDELL & WALT RENO...His 36th Actors Showcase will take place a week from Sunday (15) as JOE BERNARD (He loves to be called JOSEPH, very formal y'know) calls upon his students to present scenes from popular plays & films. The showcase also carries over to Monday. Phone him at 367-4938 to reserve a chair...Another event this Sunday finds the Youth Company of NEVADA DANCE THEATER and Chamber Orch. of NEVADA SCHOOL OF THE ARTS teaming to present Saint-Saens' "Carnival of the Animals" in Judy Bayley Theater, UNLV. Narrator is the astute chap formerly with London's BBC, classical announcer GEORGE GOSLING intoning the wonderful verses by OGDEN NASH. Featured NDT ballet artists TAMARA LOHRENZ & ROBERT HOVEY dance other bonbons...There's a big push on for MICHAEL MARTIN MURPHEY, appearing with JUICE NEWTON at the Hilton next Friday (13). Opening in Las Vegas on the 13th should be lucky for his local showroom debut...Pert blonde BONNIE GRAHAM is singing her sox off (certainly not her panty-host) in the Sahara's Casbar lounge, but she'll exit on June 16 for a new act on the scene, JACQUI J. & GLORIA. The Sahara's boss, PAUL LOWDEN is watching wife SUE for that expected WEE LOWDEN as SUE joins KNPR-FM's board of directors. She's not curtailing her missing children's reports on KLAS-TV, however...Thanks to WILBER STEVENS, drama critic of the Review-Journal and a prof in UNLV's English Department, plus being a most commendable poet for sending along his revived poetry mag, INTERIM. He is editor, aided materially by ARLEN COLLIER, the Sun's Drama critic, as managing editor, JAMES HAZEN, associate editor, and JOHN HEATH-STUBBS, English editor. In his note WILBER writes that subscriptions are "eagerly solicited." Rates are $5 per year (two issues). Send checks to him at UNLV.

CHARLES VANDA has a coup for the coming season's MASTER SERIES in its opening concert with the LONDON PHILHARMONIC and having noted conductor GINO SINOPOLI on the podium. It's a September thrill for audiences in UNLV's Ham Hall...Some distance from London will be SI ZENTNER's ORCH, swinging at the Riviera Saturday night when NATE MACK LODGE OF B'NAI B'RITH invites Vegans to dance for $10 per person and extend a tribute to one of our finest entertainers, A Man Who -- none other than PETER ANTHONY, recognized by the BB for his many contributions to the community...DON RICKLES buffs, masochists all, will have to wait about three weeks before he returns to the Sahara on the 24th for six nights. Otherwise, it's "A Chorus Line" twice nightly, 8 & 11:30, dark Mondays...This Sunday will find hand wrestlers converging upon Imperial Palace, but these aren't ordinary guys. These are beefcake gridiron heroes from the NFL. It's the 9th anni Pro Football Team Arm Wrestling Championship taped for ESPN, that's the sports network, and a freebie to the public. Doors open at 11 a. m. The triple elimination tourney is conducted by ARM WRESTLING INTERNATIONAL (AWI) with old pal, former Vegas bandleader TONY CELESTE prez of the AWI...Press reps are working overtime for SAM BUTERA, touting his output as "happy music." Actually SAM plays wild music, but sometimes wild can be happy, I guess. He's at the Barbary Coast t through the 11th, then lugs his sax up-Strip to the Tropicana to blow the next night with his band continuing over the 4th of July holiday...A few items ago, I dropped the name of MICHAEL MARTIN MURPHEY. Comes now a folder on the guy from the JIM HALSEY CO., his worldwide rep firm. The info says that MURPH, a Texas minstrel, has scored nine consecutive Top 10 country singles in the last three years alone. Thought you should be aware that the Las Vegas Hilton ain't gittin' no PRINCE, or PHIL COLLINS. This guy's latest single, "Rollin' Nowhere," is a classic sample of western swing and that's plenty country!

where guests can enjoy exotic cocktails. In the dining room, tables are surrounded by small streams formed by waterfalls flowing under arched bridges. The six-course pre-selected menu is prepared and served in Teppan Yaki style -- which is both art and entertainment. Oriental waitresses in authentic kimonos bring offerings of Sake (rice wine) to add to the atmosphere of graceful hospitality. The price is $38.50, plus tax, per person. Dinner is served nightly from 6 until 11:30 p.m. Reservations suggested. Phone 702/731-7110.

PRIMAVERA - By day, the Primavera (Italian for "springtime") features elegant poolside service with a complete selection of breakfast and luncheon items. By night, the Primavera is transformed into a "Bella Cucina Italia" (beautiful Italian kitchen) with specialties from the North and South of Italy served in the quiet surroundings of the "Garden of the Gods." The restaurant is open seasonally with breakfast service from 9-11 a.m. and luncheon service from 11:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m. Dinner is served year-round Wednesday through Sunday from 6:00 until 11:30 p.m. Dinner reservations suggested. Phone 702/731-7110.

PALATIUM - The grand buffet situated adjacent to the Olympiad Race and Sports Book offers a lavish variety of favorites. Fine cuts of meat carved at an ornate carving station are accompanied by fresh breads, salads, vegetables, entrees and desserts. Named for the second century meeting place of Rome's first academy of chefs, the Palatium consists of separate dining areas in semi-circular satellites around a lavish central food display area. The buffet is open for breakfast Monday through Friday from 8:30 until 10:30 a.m. at $4.95, and open for lunch Monday through Friday from 11:00 a.m. until 2:30 p.m. at $6.95. On Saturday and Sunday, the Olympiad Race and Sports Book Brunch is featured from 9:00 a.m. until 2:30 p.m. at $7.50. Dinner is served seven nights a week from 4:30 until 10:00 p.m. at $8.95.

CAFE ROMA - The Caesars Palace 24-hour coffee shop offers everything from a quick snack to a full breakfast, lunch and dinner.

The elaborate "Viennese Table" displays a variety of freshly prepared breakfast pastries and is transformed for lunch and dinner into a tempting array of delicious desserts.

Daily lunch and dinner specials are available at affordable prices. The Cafe Roma also features a complete Chinese menu after 5 p.m.

THE CHAMPAGNE BRUNCH - The champagne never stops flowing in the Caesars Palace Circus Maximus Showroom on Sunday from 9:30 a.m. until 2:00 p.m. when the spotlight is on a luscious buffet serving a variety of hot breakfast and lunch entrees. Fresh fruit, salads, pastries and an assortment of beverages are served at $9.50 for adults, $8.50 for children under 12.
