Welcome Home Chad

CHAD RUESCH

raise $100,000 for medical support of young, heart-transplant patient Chad Ruesch. Chad, the son of Las Vegas Metro Police Officer Keith Ruesch and his wife Carol, is an Eagle Scout and former Chapparral High School football player. Chad underwent life-saving heart-transplant surgery last month at the University of Utah Medical Center in Salt Lake City. His family faces extremely high medical bills. (Organ transplants are not covered by insurance.) We are urging all Southern Nevadans to lend a hand in this very worthy cause.

Contributions can be sent to the "University of Utah Medical Center," c/o Mohler and Mohler, CPA's, 3910 Pecos-McLeod, Ste. A-100, Las Vegas, NV 89121. Large tax deductible contributions should be sent to the "University Hospital Board Designated Development Fund" and sent to the same address. No administration fee will be charged; 100% of the proceeds will benefit Chad.

Keith Ruesch has put his life on the line for this community for 22 years, please take the time to help him and his family in their time of need.

Sincerely,
 Ron Lurie
 Las Vegas City Councilman
 Sheriff John Moran
 Manny Cortez
 Clark County Commissioner

(Editor's Note: Last Saturday night Chad came home to Las Vegas. Financial support is still needed and appreciated.)

Terrorist Gang Captured

other population centers around Israel. There were no casualties or damages in Afula.

A man was slightly injured when an explosive device detonated in a garbage can on a busy corner of Herzl Street in Ramat Gan. He was the 17th casualty in seven days of sporadic assaults on individual Israelis and bombings which the authorities believe were mainly terrorist-related. Two of the casualties were Jerusalem policemen who were knifed by a prisoner in their custody.

An Ethiopian immigrant from Kiryat Arba was stabbed in the back in the Hebron Arab quarter while shopping one day last week. He was treated at Hadassah Hospital in Jerusalem where his wound was reported to be minor. Another Israeli was shot and slightly wounded in a Nablus shop and a bomb exploded in a Jerusalem supermarket, slightly wounding two women.

The most serious -- and bizarre -- incident occurred when a Gaza Arab, identified as Ibrahim Jamil, 34, rammed his Volkswagen into a crowded bus stop in the Jerusalem suburb of Kiryat Yovel. Eleven persons were injured, seven of them children of whom two were reported in serious condition. Police took Jamil into custody and confiscated a knife found in his car. But at police headquarters in the Russian Compound, the prisoner whose handcuffs had been removed, grabbed the knife and plunged it into the stomach of police officer Yitzhak Silberstein who was guarding him. He escaped from the building, stabbing another officer, Moshe Rababchi, who tried to stop him. Officer Shlomo Cohen chased Jamil down the street, opened fire and wounded him in the shoulder. Police are investigating the incident.

Israeli authorities attributed the upsurge of assaults and bombings to the 19th anniversary of the start of the Six-Day War. Premier Shimon Peres said the supermarket bombing was intended to mar celebration of Jerusalem Reunification Day.

Meanwhile, the IDF announced that two Arabs were arrested in a house near Elisha village east of Jerusalem in the West Bank where a cache of landmines was discovered. They are reportedly members of a terrorist gang living in Jericho, Hebron and Bethlehem, suspected of seven attacks in one month.
