The regular monthly meeting of the Greater Las Vegas Advertising Federation will be held on Friday, June 27, at the Palace Station Hotel & Casino, beginning at 11:30 A.M. The cost of the luncheon meeting is $15.00 for non-members, payable at the door. Reservations are required.

Highlighting the program will be an awards presentation entitled "Bloops, Bleeps, And Blunders," coordinated by Jerry Wayne of Group Media. Installation of officers for the coming year will also take place at this meeting.
 Please RSVP to Louise Collucci of Kelly Reber Advertising, 732-8294.

Centel Telephone Company will hold its annual Bowl-a-thon to benefit the Muscular Dystrophy Association. This event, to be held on June 24, 1986, helps raise funds to aid the fight against muscular dystrophy by providing worldwide research and comprehensive medical services to MD patients here in Southern Nevada. Last year Centel employees raised over $4300 for MDA and hope to top that amount this year. Contact Linda Carter, MDA Program Coordinator, Southern Nevada, (702) 737-3103 for more information.

Mark your calendars for Sunday June 22nd from 2 to 4 in the afternoon. Why? That's when Joe Behar's Community Drama Workshop will present its free showcase as the special guest of the Clark County Library District at the Main Library on Flamingo. The show includes comic and dramatic scenes, singers, variety acts and a few surprises. Call 458-0069 for information.

Valley Bank of Nevada will hold its annual Bowl-a-thon to benefit the Muscular Dystrophy Association. This event, to be held on June 28, 1986, helps raise funds to aid the fight against muscular dystrophy by providing worldwide research and comprehensive medical services to MD patients here in Southern Nevada. Last year Valley Bank employees raised over $5,500 and hope to top that amount this year. Contact Linda Carter, MDA Program Coordinator, Southern Nevada, (702) 737-3103 for more information.

"TIPS FOR TOTS" celebrity bartenders fundraising event is being held on Thursday, July 10, 1986 at T.G.I. Fridays restaurant to benefit WE CAN (Working to Eliminate Child Abuse and Neglect), from 4:00 p.m. - 9:00 p.m.

Local and national notables will be on hand to serve up the fun along with clowns, magicians, and jugglers. A special WE CAN DRINK has been created by the T.G.I. Fridays' bartending staff and can be made with or without alcohol.

A Yamaha Jog motor bike has been donated by Nationwide Printers to head up an impressive array of door prizes to be given away throughout the evening. Tickets for this event are $3.00 for one WE CAN DRINK and a chance for a door prize. Door prize tickets will be $1.00 each.

The "TIPS FOR TOTS" fundraiser is open to the public. To purchase tickets or for more information, call the WE CAN office at 384-0713.

Larry Gelbaugh, Basic High School graduating senior, has been selected as a 1986 Presidential Scholar, the nation's highest distinction bestowed upon exceptional high school students. He will represent the Clark County School District when he joins the other 140 Presidential Scholars for a week of educational, cultural and social activities, including a White House ceremony where they will receive the Presidential Scholar medallion in Washington, D.C. this June. Each scholar also receives $1,000 from the Geraldine R. Dodge Foundation, a private philanthropic organization.

Dr. Andy Fry, professor of history at UNLV, was recently named associate dean of the College of Arts and Letters by Dean Tom Wright.

Fry, who has been a member of the college's history department faculty since 1975 and has served as chair of the department since 1983, will begin his new duties July 1.
 "Andy is certainly well qualified for the job, and I am enthusiastic about working with him," Wright said in his announcement of Fry's appointment.

"I'm excited about this opportunity," Fry said. "I've seen administration at the department level, and I'm looking forward to participating at the college level."
