

D.C. Artist Phillip Ratner To Donate Ellis Island Sculptures To JNF

Washington, D.C. artist Phillip Ratner proudly displays his original bronze sculptures of Ellis Island immigrants, which he has donated to JNF's American Independence Park, outside Jerusalem.

Washington, D.C. artist Phillip Ratner has donated eight bronze sculptures of Ellis Island immigrants to the Jewish National Fund, for display in the American Independence Park, outside Jerusalem.

In announcing the donation, Dr. Joseph P. Sternstein, JNF president, stated, "Phillip Ratner's depictions of the brave immigrants who crowded America's shores are a most welcome and appropriate addition to the American Independence Park. Their location in an Israeli park which celebrates America reminds us all of the fact that both countries have served as refuges for those seeking liberty."

While JNF has received the original models, Mr. Ratner has also cast eight life-size figures which permanently grace the lobby of the Statue of Liberty. JNF will be sending the eight original bronzes on a tour of selected U.S. cities, holding

A Meeting Of Friends

NEW YORK (WNS) — The American Jewish Congress has announced that it is suspending all tours to Austria, saying the election of Kurt Waldheim as President "has made it impossible to feel comfortable in that country."

a number of receptions to raise money for a museum to house the works in the American Independence Park. JNF established the park during the Bicentennial as a testimonial to the friendship and vision shared between the U.S. and Israel.

JNF is the organization responsible for afforestation and land reclamation in Israel.

Five Injured In Bomb Explosion On Bus

TEL AVIV (WNS) — Five bus commuters were slightly injured when an explosive charge went off in a bus travelling from Petach Tikva to Tel Aviv. The injured persons were all released after being given first aid treatment in a nearby hospital.

The No. 51 bus was packed, with passengers standing in the aisle when the charge exploded in the rear of the vehicle as it passed a busy intersection at the corner of the Petach Tikvah and Haifa Roads and Shaul Hamelech Avenue.
