Jellyfish Invade Israel's Beaches

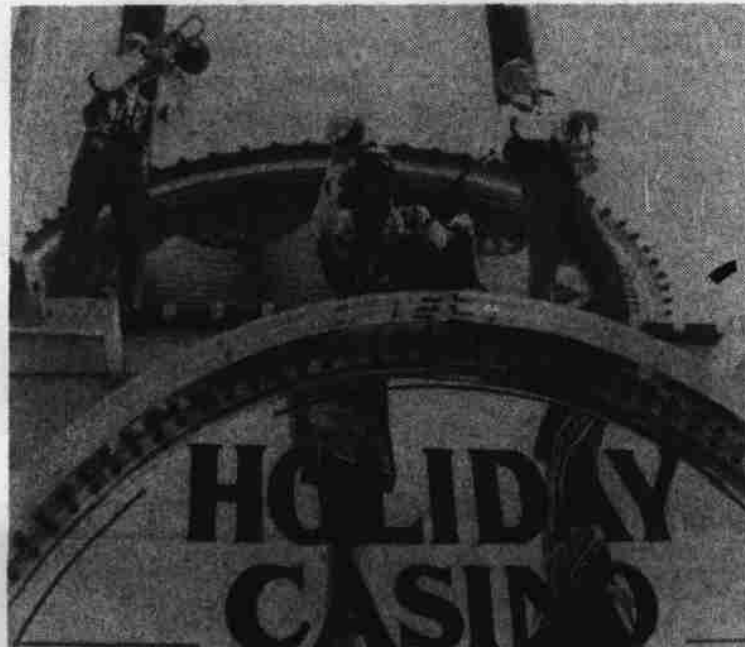

TEL AVIV (WNS) — Israel's beaches are presently being invaded by Jellyfish (medusas) and the experts say they cannot explain why this year's attack by the almost translucent marine creatures has been far worse than in previous years.

Doctors have advised bathers stung by the creatures to wash off immediately with clear water, to decrease the intense burning sensation from the sting, which lasts for some hours.

Lifeguards are flying red flags to warn bathers at the approach of the invaders from the sea.

Marine biologists hope the Medusas will soon return to their normal homes out to sea and near the seabed.

'Wandering Minstrel' Makes Music In Holiday Casino

Singer Dave Moran makes music through the Holiday Casino on the Center Strip in Las Vegas from 5 p.m. to 11 p.m. daily. The "wandering minstrel" takes requests and sings his own original compositions to the delight of customers throughout the casino and lounge areas. His seemingly endless repertoire includes everything from country and rock to easy listening ballads.

ALL deserve justice and fair treatment by our courts. There IS a way:
