UNLV's Division of Continuing Education is offering a new series of business seminars this summer.

A course titled Essentials of Purchasing for the Newly Appointed Buyer, meeting Aug. 4-5, 9 a.m. - 4:30 p.m., will analyze product assessment techniques, establishing proper inventory controls, and evaluating sources of supply.

Success through Winning Marketing
Strategies will meet Aug. 11-12, 9 a.m.-4:30 p.m.

A class on Managing Priorities, set for Aug. 18, 9 a.m.-4:30 p.m., will focus on goal setting and decision making.

Dealing with the Difficult Employee will meet
Aug. 19, 9 a.m.-4:30 p.m.

Reading and Analyzing Financial Statements will meet Aug. 20, 9 a.m.-4:30 p.m. This class will examine financial concepts and accounting techniques for people with little or no knowledge of accounting and finance principles.

All of these professional seminars meet at the Holiday Inn-Center Strip and are taught by nationally recognized authorities in their fields.

For additional information, call the Division of Continuing Education at 739-3394.
