

Improv At The Riviera

No, that's not a headless comic roaming the Strip, it's just a member of Budd Friedman's "An Evening at the Improv," which features L.A.'s brightest new comedy performers. The show plays nightly at 8:30 and 10:30 p.m., with a third show added on Saturdays at 12:30 a.m. in the Improv Room at the Riviera Hotel and Casino. This week the Improv stars Rick Ducommun, Ellen DeGeneres, Barry Marder and Kelly McDonald. For information, call 734-5300.

Security Officer Bob Mueller
August Employee Of The Month At The Imperial Palace Hotel & Casino

A native of Chicago, IL, Security Officer Bob Mueller says he was very surprised when he found out he had been selected for the August "Employee of the Month" at the Imperial Palace Hotel & Casino. "I think its a real honor to be picked when I'm only one person out of 1500 employees." He continues, "I don't really know why I was picked -- it was a real surprise. I just do my job to the best of my ability."

It was no mystery to Ed Steffen, chief of uniform security, why he nominated Mueller. Steffen says, "Since Bob was hired August 30, 1984, I have found him to be very dependable, loyal, and an outstanding employee. He has a good working knowledge of his job and his duties. Bob is excellent in communicating with his fellow employees and our guests. In addition, Bob always volunteers for special details in the department and also for hotel functions such as the Auto Run and Senior Citizen Christmas Party. Since coming to the Imperial Palace two years ago, Mueller has only missed one day of work due to illness."

Mueller re-located to Las Vegas from his hometown five years ago due to the cost of living here vs. Chicago. While living in the Midwest, Mueller was a truck driver and was with the Addison Police Department (a suburb of Chicago) as a policeman for 10 years. After arriving in Las Vegas, Bob was a security officer at another Las Vegas property before coming to the Imperial Palace.

Bob has been married to his wife, Shirley, for the past 25 years. They have two children, Sandra, 24, who lives in California and Steven, who is 21 and a Las Vegas resident.

When asked why he likes working at the Imperial Palace, Mueller was quick to respond. "I enjoy it. I'd rather work for a place owned by one person. You get treated better. You're not just a number."

As "Employee of the Month," Bob will receive a color portrait, a $75.00 U.S. Savings Bond and dinner for two in the Kobe Steak House, compliments of the Imperial Palace.

NEW YORK (WNS) — Only 31 Jews left the Soviet Union in July, the National Conference on Soviet Jewry reported. The July figure is the lowest monthly total since October of 1984. This brings the total for the first seven months of 1986 to 417.
