published by The Philosophical Library this year, thanks to the initiative of another faithful devotee of Pastor Russell, Emily Hoefle of Mount Dora, Florida. As this volume bears out, the Pastor urged the Jewish people to remain faithful to their Torah-religion. He opposed proselytization.

A communication received from Leanore here at the UN this week points to the fact that she, and surely all the devotees of Pastor Russell, are militantly-inclined, supporting the Greater Israel concept as adjudicated in the Bible. Hence they are taking a strong stand in favor of the settlers in the territories and more particularly the Jewish community of Hebron, originally inspired by Rabbi Moshe Levinger and his dynamic wife, Miriam, parents of eleven children.

Leanore's communication contained a copy of a most interesting letter from an official of the Hebron community, Gary Cooperstein, its Director of Public Relations. Sent as a response to an inquiry by her, its highlights are worth taking note of:

"You certainly have my permission to share my letters with whomsoever you please. I have already heard from Mrs. Hoefle, who has contributed five trees in memory of her parents...

"I have read the book about Pastor Russell and was quite impressed to hear of his teachings. Truth is universal and it is there for anyone to find if he is but willing to honestly look for it...Pastor Russell was evidently a true scholar who came to his conclusions as a result of sincere, laborious searching for the Truth. It is satisfying to learn that he left behind a living legacy of those who carry on the dissemination of the knowledge which he so painstakingly achieved...We are all children of G-d and each one of us has a role to play in the great Divine Plan...

"Leanore, it appears to me that you and your fellow followers of Pastor Russell understand the role of the Jewish people far better than some of our Jewish leaders who are so bereft of such basic knowledge...We free 1500 murderers, many of whom were turned loose in Israel and paid each one a ransom of the equivalent of 500 dollars. We imprison Jewish redeemers who

Jared Shafer Is Running For Re-Election To Public Administrator

Democrat Jared Shafer, Clark County Public Administrator for the last seven years, is running for re-election to the position, stating that experience is necessary to handle the day to day functions of the office.

"The voters can't afford to elect a person who doesn't know the office," Jared Shafer said. "The Public Administrator's department is a working office that a lot of people, especially senior citizens, depend upon for guidance and support.

"When I was appointed as Public Administrator seven years ago, the office was plagued by inefficiency. I have worked hard to eliminate the waste and completely reorganized the office to operate efficiently," he added.

Under Shafer's direction, the department risked their lives and freedom to avenge their brothers' blood when no one else was willing to...We castigate our security personnel for doing their duty -- since when do indiscriminate murderers of women and children deserve any rights?

"And, worst of all, we have forgotten our very reason for the establishment of the Jewish State. To be different, by living our lives according to the Torah of G-d is, by no means to be racist. Judaism doesn't denounce other religions...All we pray for is the right to live as Jews in our Biblical land. Only when we live here, under G-d's Law, can we fulfill our Divine destiny to be a light unto the nations -- not by force, but by example."

The Hebron patriot continues to expound the Maccabean policy which all the settlers within the Jewish community of the Abrahamic city hold in common:

"The rebirth of the Jewish homeland in Israel is the most obvious proof of Divine intervention in modern times," he wrote to Leanore. "Every war fought here since has augmented that proof. That we fail to see that is the greatest tragedy of our time. We are living in a time of fulfillment of the prophecies and of monumental miracles. Those of us who can see that have no fears and worries about what will be...The more we refuse to see the more pain and suffering we will be made to endure, but Divine destiny has already been set in motion and nothing can stop it..."

Indeed, nothing can prevent the decreed as blueprinted in the Tanach.

operates the only functioning guardianship program in the history of Nevada, and has handled in excess of 500 guardianships.

"As public Administrator, I have returned in excess of $700,000 back to the county from fees and reimbursed expenses. We now have an accurate and up to date record system, having been completely computerized at no cost to the taxpayers," said Shafer. "I have been able to do this through hard work and the right kind of experience."

Shafer is responsible for handling all probate cases under county jurisdiction and often works with local, state, and federal officials in assisting senior citizens. The office has also expanded to help juveniles, the developmentally disabled, and any other citizen who may be in need of support services.

Shafer employs two social workers on staff, to counsel and assist residents 60 years and older who have the Public Administrator as their guardian.

A lifetime Nevadan, Shafer is a graduate of Las Vegas High School, and received both his undergraduate and master's degrees from the University of Southern California.

Shafer, 42, and his wife, Claire, have two children.
