

Congregation Ner Tamid News

By Marilyn Glovinsky and Judi Schwartz

Congregation Ner Tamid looks forward with enthusiasm and a renewed sense of purpose as they begin their fourteenth year in Las Vegas. The month of September will be a busy one.

On September 5th, there will be a special Shabbat Service as a Memorial to the late Fran Rostov, a beloved and integral part of the Ner Tamid congregation who passed away in June. Conducting the services will be Rabbi Joseph Friedman of San Francisco, assisted by the NTTY members. Shana Davidson, a religious school student, will be participating in services on September 12th, on the occasion of her Confirmation. Also during the month of September will be the Bat Mitzvah of Wendy Weisbart.

A Congregational Shabbat dinner for members and prospective members will be held on September 19th. We invite everyone to meet the Ner Tamid Board and membership at this time. Sisterhood will be holding a Musical Fashion Show on September 11th. Husbands are welcome too! The junior and senior youth groups will be busy and functioning as usual. During the summer, Ner Tamid teenagers participated in the Mitzvah Corps, a camp for underprivileged children in the Phoenix area. Several also attended SWFTY camp in Prescott, Arizona. Advisor Harvey Eisner will continue his leadership of this active and involved group.

The Ner Tamid Religious School will begin on Sunday, September 14th at 9:30 a.m. This will be an opportunity for parents to hear about the school programs, to meet the teachers, to enroll their children, and to share bagels and coffee with Board Members. Midweek Hebrew, leading to Bar and Bat Mitzvah ceremonies, will begin on Tuesday, September 23rd., at 4:00 p.m. We will continue the music and library programs.

Two of the NTTY (Ner Tamid Temple Youth) members received national recognition this year. Loryn Dunn, a former President of NTTY, was

'Legends In Concert' Cast From Imperial Palace To Do Benefit Concert In San Diego

August 31, 1986

On Sunday, August 31, 1986, the cast of "Legends in Concert" from the Imperial Palace Hotel & Casino in Las Vegas, will perform in a benefit concert in San Diego. The charity event is sponsored by the San Diego and the Los Angeles Police Departments. Proceeds from the concert, which will take place in the Jack Murphy stadium, will go to the Children's Workshop for Handicapped Kids and the Memorial Fund for Deceased Officers.

The cast including live re-creations of Elvis Presley (Jonathon Von Brana), Marilyn Monroe (Susan Griffiths), Buddy Holly (George Trullinger), Hank Williams (Jim Owen), and The Beatles (Tony Kishman, David Leon, Louie Colucci, and Richie Ray) will jet via a chartered plane to San Diego for the one-hour concert and return to Las Vegas in time to perform two shows at the Imperial Palace at 8 p.m. & 11 p.m. that evening.

named the outstanding student in the State of Nevada, received a phone call from Governor Bryan, and a free trip to Baltimore to participate in a special weeklong seminar for the outstanding students from each of the fifty states. Marc Fenster, the President of NTTY for the coming year, was selected to represent the State of Nevada at Boys' Nation, a weeklong seminar on leadership held in Washington, D.C. Marc met President Reagan, as well as Senators Hecht and Reid during his week in our nation's Capitol.

For membership information, please contact Darin Tiep, Membership Vice President, 458-1431. Information on the Religious School is available from Rona Mendelson, Education Vice President, or Judi Schwartz, Principal. The Temple office phone number is 733-6292.

Roger Collins Of Humana Hospital Sunrise Named Vice President Of Humana Group Health Division

Roger Collins, Executive Director of Humana Hospital Sunrise, has been named Vice President of Humana Group Health Division. The announcement was made by James Bohanon, Senior Regional Vice President for the Pacific Region.

Mr. Collins, who came to Sunrise as Administrator in 1980, will assume his new duties in Louisville, Kentucky, the Corporate Headquarters for Humana September 2nd. Both Mr. Collins and his wife Judi have been active in many facets of community service during their six years in Las Vegas.

The appointment of Donald Stewart as Executive Director of Sunrise was also announced by Mr. Bohanon. Mr. Stewart comes to Sunrise from the Med First Division of Humana in Louisville. He brings a wide range of hospital experience to Sunrise, having been with Humana for ten years.

Dr. Stephen Covey, dubbed the "new wizard of corporate culture" by Dun's Business Month comes to Las Vegas Sept. 17 for a one-day seminar and workshop presented by the Quality and Productivity Institute. "Seven Habits of Highly Effective People" is set for 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Alexis Park Hotel. The seminar is being jointly sponsored by Vista Management Group, Nevada Power Company and Southwest Gas Corporation.

While Covey's seminars usually range in the thousands of dollars, Las Vegas will be able to take part in the intensive one-day event for $75 per person, $65 for three or more persons from the same company, or $50 per person when 10 or more from one organization register. For registration information call QPI at 367-5654.

RE-ELECT JOAN L. SWIFT

County Recorder
Democrat

A Proven Record of Accomplishment

RETAIN JUDGE

BILL JANSEN

Justice of the Peace
Department 5

Meet Judge
BILL JANSEN

- * Graduated Michigan State University 1958, B.S. Criminal Justice; Drake University Law School 1962, Jurist Doctorate; F.B.I. Academy 1962; and National Judicial College 1985.
- * Served over 23 years as a Special Agent with the F.B.I., retiring in September of 1985.
- * 19 year resident of Las Vegas.
- * Member State Bar of Nevada and Clark County Bar Association since 1972.
- * Appointed by the Clark County Commission to Department 5 of Justice Court.
- * Active member of numerous civic and charitable organizations.
- * Bill Jansen and his wife, Nora, have two sons, Michael and Paul.
- * Since his appointment to the bench, Judge Jansen has been noted for his stern yet fair approach in the discharge of his judicial duties.
- "The no-nonsense Judge." — Las Vegas Review-Journal
- "... The popular ex FBI agent seems to have a flare for tempering justice with compassion..." — Las Vegas Sun
- A vote for Judge Jansen is a commitment for hard work and a vote for a no-nonsense approach to criminal justice.