

Waldheim Identified In Nazi Student Photo

Kurt Waldheim is identified in a 1938 photograph of members of the Nazi Student Union published by a neo-Nazi newspaper in West Germany this year.

The photograph shows the Nazi Student Union on parade in Vienna in 1938 being escorted by Hitler's brownshirted Stormtroopers. Waldheim is identified in the front line of the Nazi students.

Documents from Austrian Foreign Ministry and court archives - explicitly naming Waldheim - show Waldheim to have been a member of three Nazi organizations, including the Student Union and the Stormtroopers. According to these previously released documents, Waldheim became a member of the Nazi Student Union on April 1, 1938 and a member of the Nazi Stormtroopers on November 18, 1938.

Waldheim has repeatedly denied membership in Nazi organizations: He wrote WJC President Edgar M. Bronfman on March 7, "I was not a member of the SA (Stormtroopers) or any organization of the Nazi regime." He explicitly stated he was not a member of the SA or the Nazi Student Union in his formal defense memorandum to the U.S. Justice Department of April 12.

He told the Associated Press on April 9: "I was anti-Nazi. All this is lies. I was never in the SA nor in the Student Union).

On March 28, 1986 the neo-Nazi paper Deutscher Anzeiger published the front page photograph of the Viennese Nazi students on parade.

Waldheim, the newspaper said, "hides the facts of the picture," by denying he is in it. He is challenged by Josef Tasler, a former school colleague of Waldheim, who "absolutely recognizes the slender Waldheim in front of his heavy-set brownshirt comrades."

Tasler says: "Yes, that is Kurti, no doubt. It can only be him or a double."

In a mocking headline above the photograph the newspaper printed, "Did Waldheim Have A Twin?"

Coinciding with the release of the photograph, the WJC again called on Attorney General Edwin Meese "to enforce the law and place Waldheim on the 'watch list' of aliens excludable from the United States."

In April, the Justice Department's Office of Special Investigations concluded that under American law, Waldheim should be excluded as a "Nazi persecutor."

New York Jews Help Cameroon Disaster Victims

NEW YORK (WNS) — Lester Pollack, president of the Jewish Community Relations Council of Greater New York (JCRC), presented a check for $5,000 to Tommo Monthe, charge d'Affaires at the Cameroon Mission to the United Nations to help the surviving victims of the volcanic gas leak in the country which killed an estimated 1,500 people.

Pollack pointed out that the Council was spearheading a fund raising drive in the Jewish and the general community for relief funds to purchase desperately needed supplies and medicines to aid those remaining in the stricken area.

Pollack, speaking on behalf of the JCRC's 61 member organizations in the metropolitan area, carried a message of compassion on behalf of the New York Jewish community. "The Jewish people worldwide," Pollack told Monthe, "identify

Southwest Medical Associates To Manage New Medical Center In Pahrump

LAS VEGAS — Southwest Medical Associates, Inc., Nevada's largest multi-specialty medical group, announced that it has entered into an agreement with the Pahrump Community Medical Center to manage the facility.

The 1,550 square foot medical center, temporarily located in a double-wide mobile home converted for clinical use, is located on Calvada Boulevard next to Holly Park in Pahrump and is scheduled to open the last week of September. Carl LeViseur, M.D., a Board Eligible Family Practitioner, will provide medical care to the patients of Pahrump Community Medical Center. The Center will be open to all patients.

Under the terms of the agreement, Southwest Medical Associates will provide managerial and administrative assistance to the Center.

"We are extremely pleased with this partnership," said Joan Hill, Administrator of Southwest Medical Associates. "I feel Southwest can provide the administrative expertise necessary to make the Pahrump Community Medical Center a success. Also, I am looking forward to being able to offer the Pahrump members of Health Plan of Nevada and Senior Dimensions a more convenient location at which to receive their medical care," she added. Health Plan of Nevada and Southwest Medical Associates are both subsidiaries of Sierra Health Services, Inc., a publicly-held Las Vegas based health care delivery company.

The Pahrump Community Medical Center Board is headed by Mr. Leonard Dennis.
