

L'Chayim

With just-released former USSR national chess champion Boris Gulko of Moscow (c., in shirt) all smiles, (l-r) Manhattan Chess Club president Prof. Neik McKelvie, American Chess Foundation director Allen Kaufman, and USA chess champ Lev Alburt offer a toast of the 8-year refusenik's redemption, lifting Israeli champagne provided by the Student Struggle for Soviet Jewry. Gulko is also using his newly-won freedom to speak out for his many refusenik friends and relatives still trapped in Russia, such as his brother-in-law Vladimir Kislik, a former Prisoner of Conscience. A select list of POCs and refuseniks to whom to send High Holiday greetings is available from the SSSJ at 210 West 91st Street, New York, N.Y. 10024, free.
