

Spanish Foreign Minister Visits Israel

JERUSALEM (WNS) — Spanish Foreign Minister Francisco Fernandez Ordonez arrived in Israel for the first visit by a Spanish minister since the two countries established diplomatic relations last January.

He was received at the airport by Vice Premier and Foreign Minister Yitzhak Shamir. Both noted the historic significance of the visit.

Fernandez sharply condemned the "recent barbaric acts of terrorism." He noted that although the relations between Spain and Israel were good, there were also differences. He said his country was convinced that a just peace for all was possible. "A genuine peace requires sacrifices by all," he said, "but the greatest sacrifice is the absence of peace."

Fernandez began his official trip by visiting the Yad Vashem Holocaust memorial in Jerusalem. Later that day, he met with Premier Shimon Peres and Shamir for political talks.

The Future Meets The Present

New York...The future meets the present, face to face, at the 72nd annual convention of Hadassah, the Women's Zionist Organization of America, which was held recently at the Fontainebleau Hilton Hotel, Miami Beach. Rachel Mittleberg, a five-and-a-half year old from Miami and already a Life Member of the organization for more than five years, chats with Joyce Kiley, National Hadassah Membership Chairman of Allentown, Pennsylvania, during the Membership Plenary. Hadassah has approximately 385,000 members in 1,700 chapters throughout the United States and Puerto Rico.
