

Egypt's Ambassador To Israel Presents Credentials

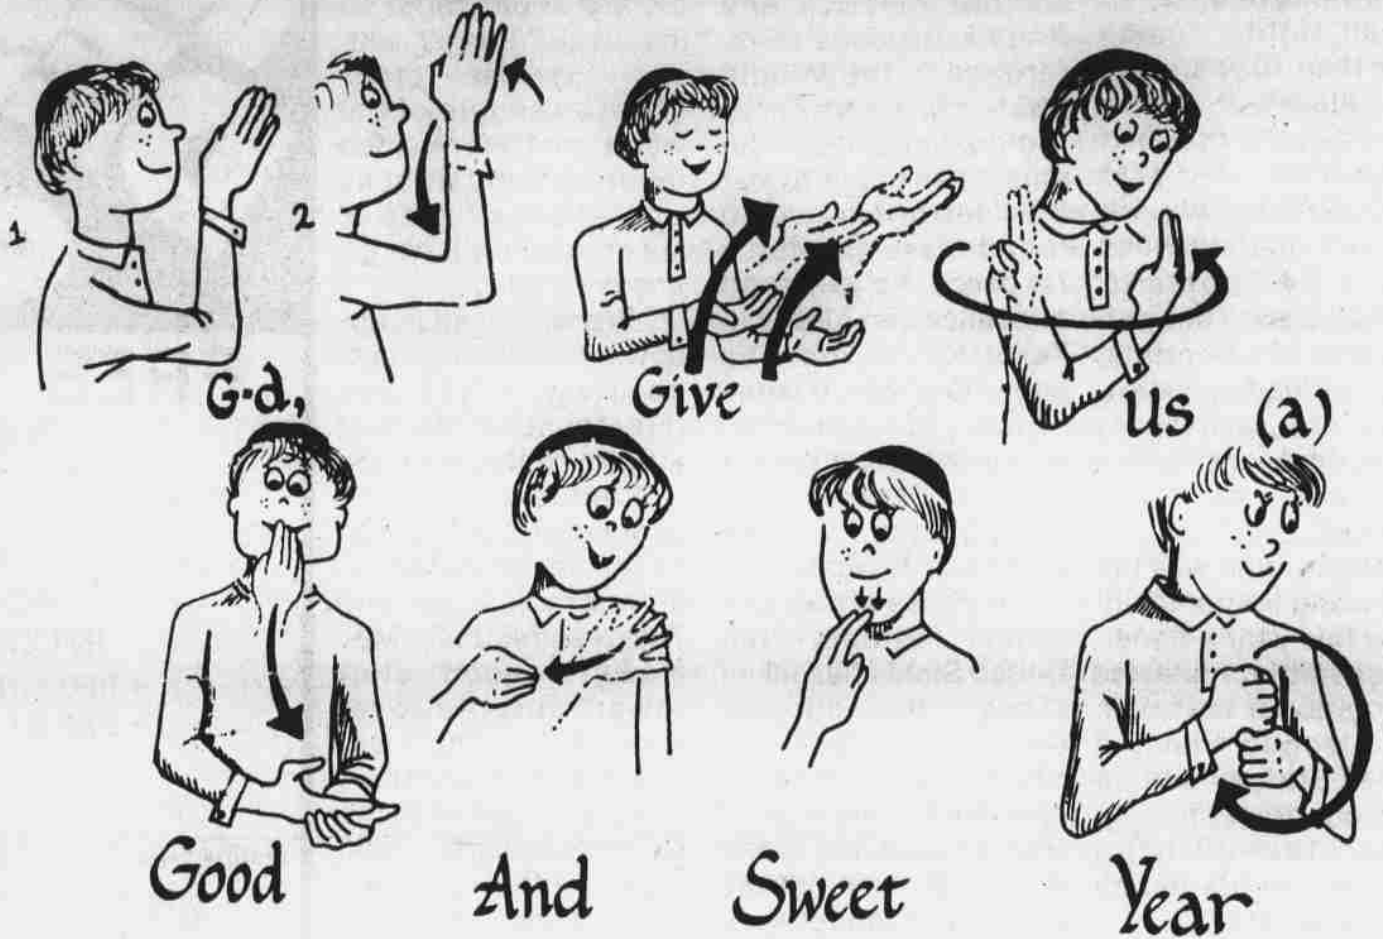

JERUSALEM (WNS) — Mohammed Bassiouny, Egypt's new Ambassador to Israel, presented his credentials to President Chaim Herzog. The ceremonies at the Presidential residence marked the restoration of top-level Egyptian diplomatic representation in Israel for the first time since Cairo recalled its former Ambassador, Sad Mortada, during Israel's invasion of Lebanon in 1982.

Bassiouny remained in Tel Aviv at that time and for the next four years acted as Charge d'Affaires. His appointment as Ambassador was announced at the summit meeting between Premier Shimon Peres and President Hosni Mubarak of Egypt in Alexandria three weeks ago.

The new envoy arrived at the Presidential residence in a car provided by Herzog. As he alighted, the Egyptian flag was raised and the Egyptian national anthem was played. Bassiouny reviewed a military police guard of honor. He was accompanied by members of the Egyptian Embassy staff in Tel Aviv.

"Our Way" Distributes Rosh Hashanah Prayer In Sign Language For Jewish Deaf

Copyright 1986. All Rights Reserved. Union of Orthodox Jewish Congregations of America.

"OUR WAY," the program for Jewish deaf sponsored by the National Conference of Synagogue Youth (NCSY), is distributing directions for "signing" the prayer said after dipping apples in honey to thousands of deaf Jewish youth and adults in preparation for Rosh Hashanah which starts on the night of October 3, 1986.

The information sheet is part of OUR WAY's "Mitzvah series" of prayers and blessings in sign language for various holidays and occasions.

Other OUR WAY projects include Jewish Teletype, a Dial-a-story service for those with teletype telephones (212) 947-5953, and OUR WAY Magazine, packed with stories and information about Jewish life.

You may receive a copy by sending a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope to: OUR WAY, c/o NCSY, 70 West 36th Street, New York, N.Y. 10018; (212) 244-2011.

NCSY is the youth movement of the Union of Orthodox Jewish Congregations of America.

The Model Demonstration Development Learning Center at UNLV has vacancies in its program for young children with special needs.

Both morning and afternoon classes are available, meeting for three hours a day, four days a week. The morning session is held from 8:30 - 11:30 a.m., Monday through Thursday; afternoon sessions are set for noon-3 p.m., Monday through Thursday.

The MDDLC serves young children, from birth to school age, who have special needs in any areas of child development, such as vision, hearing, communication, speech and language, motor skills, self-help, social (behavior), emotional, cognitive learning, and general physical development.

Teachers work with the children individually and in small groups, following standard child development curricula. An Individualized Education Program (IEP) is designed for each child after thorough evaluation.
