

Gladys Knight & The Pips
And Gregory Hines
Star At Hilton

Gladys Knight & The Pips and Gregory Hines will open at the Las Vegas Hilton for a six-day engagement on October 14.

Appearing in the Hilton Showroom, Knight and Hines return following a successful two-week engagement they played at the resort back in August.

After 32 years together, several Grammy Awards and countless hits, Gladys Knight & The Pips have earned the status of legends in the pop/soul music industry.

Their numerous hit songs include: "Every Beat Of My Heart," "Heard It Through The Grapevine," "Neither One Of Us," "If I Were Your Woman," "Friendship Train" and "I Don't Want To Do Wrong."

The group currently has a release out on the Columbia label, entitled, Life.

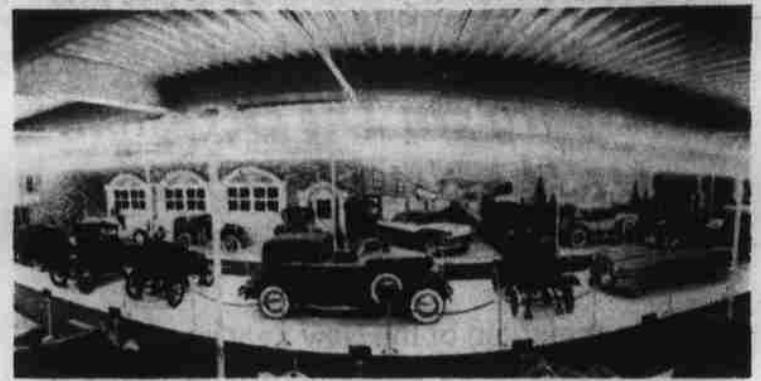

LIFE takes over where Knight's last album, Visions, left off. The album's first single "My Time," is a blistering dance number punctuated by dynamic synthesizer work. Other strong cuts include: "Keep Givin' Me Love" and "Glitter."

Co-starring with Gladys Knight & The Pips in the Hilton Showroom is Gregory Hines.

Already known for his dancing and singing talents, Hines has made the transition to the big screen with a great deal of success. With films like "History of the World," "Cotton Club" and "White Nights" already behind him, he has gained nationwide notoriety for his acting endeavors.

His latest film, "Running Scared," is a comedy/drama centering around the exploits of two Chicago policemen. It co-stars Billy Crystal.

While Hines has become well-known in movie theaters, it's his Broadway musical background which set the pace for his career. With tony nominations for "Eubie," "Comin' Uptown" and "Sophisticated Ladies," he's hoofed his way into the hearts of countless theater followers.

Gladys Knight & The Pips and Gregory Hines will appear at the Las Vegas Hilton through October 19. Call (702) 732-5755 for showroom reservations.
